MISSES DEATH BY INCHES. Although no one was injured in this three-vehicle smashup on the Edsel Ford Expressway in Detroit, the driver of the truck is perhaps the luckiest one of the three, for when he applied his brakes to try to avoid the collision his load of steel rods shot forward, penetrated his cab and missed impaling him by inches. British Take Stern Action On Cypriots

Put Island Under Full Curfew in Effort To Halt Bloody Outbreak

NICOSIA, Cyprus (AP) — Only British troops walked the streets of Nicosia today as authorities clamped on the first 100 per cent curfew in an effort to end communal fighting.

Britain also ordered paratroopers to the Mediterranean colony to strengthen her troops trying to end continuing clashes between Greek and Turkish Cypriots. Eleven Cypriots have been killed since Saturday.

No Emergency Passes

Since the outbreak of communal rioting, the Greek and Turkish communities had been allowed out of doors separately for several hours daily to get food and other essentials. Today even that was prohibited and such pass holders as doctors, civil servants and reporters were included in the prohibition.

British plans for the future of Cyprus—to be announced Tuesday—are expected to intensify the violence by failing fully to satisfy either the 400,000 Cypriots of Greek descent or the 100,000 Turks.

The Greeks want the island annexed to Greece. The Turks want Cyprus partitioned if the British leave.

Approaches Civil War

The situation approached civil war Thursday with the bloodiest battle yet. A gang of 300 Greek Cypriots tried to raid a Turkish village near Nicosia and was met with gunfire. Three Greeks were killed and nine wounded.

British troops headed off part of the Greek mob, arresting 30 and disarming the rest, but one group set fire to crops and was attacked by hidden Turks. Seventen Turks were arrested.

In another clash, club-swinging British troops broke up a Turkish mob trying to storm a Nicosia police station. Authorities clamped an earlier curfew on the Turkish section of town.

The War Office in London said the situation on Cyprus is deteriorating and more troops are needed to bolster the British forces that make this an East Mediterranean strongpoint. About 500 paratroopers are expected to be flown here Saturday. Other troops in England have been alerted.

Three Inmates Scale Wall, Escape Prison

Make Break Unobserved During Rain

Two Nurses, Patient Flee; Clothing of One Is Found in Bucyrus

Three inmates of the Marion Correctional Institution escaped about 4 a.m. today when they crawled through a hospital ward window, jumped to the ground and scaled a fence during a downpour of rain.

This marked the first time in the history of the local medium-security institution that more than two men escaped at the same time.

It was the third escape in six weeks, bringing the total number of men at large to six since April 30.

Break Window Bars

Lamoyne Green, institution superintendent, theorized this morning that the three inmates crawled through the window after using a wrench to break the bars.

From the window, located at third floor level, the men jumped onto a roof and then to the ground at the back of the institution's main building, Mr. Green said.

Slipping away unnoticed in the rain, the trio scaled a double fence at the north side of the property and took a northerly course until reaching County Rd. 167 (Lykens Road), the first road behind the prison, Mr. Green said.

Path Traced by Tracks

The route the men took to this point was traced by tracks they made, according to the superintendent. In climbing the fence, the three men apparently ran into difficulty as a shoe, a baseball cap and two jackets were found just inside the barrier, Mr. Green said. He noted these objects probably impeded progress, so were left behind.

Local law enforcement officials were called to the vicinity about 4:30 a.m. and assisted prison guards in searching outlying buildings in the area where the escapees might have sought refuge. No trace of them was found.

Both sheriff's deputies and state highway patrolmen joined in the early morning manhunt but relaxed their efforts later this morning after no further trace of the trio was found.

Accomplice Possible

Some officials theorized that the men may have been picked up on Lykens Rd. by a friend tipped off in advance of their escape plans.

The three men were identified as Duane E. Gulley, 21, serving a burglary sentence of 1-20 years from Hamilton County; Herman E. Williams, 31, sentenced from Washington County, and James R. Murphy, 25, sent up from Lorain County, both on armed robbery charges. The latter were serving 10-25-year sentences.

Nabbed in Columbus

Suspect in Assaults on Two Delaware Women Arrested

Fred Cooks, a 37-year-old Columbus Negro, was returned to Delaware at noon today to face charges of criminally assaulting a 24-year-old Delaware County mother and her 16-year-old babysitter Wednesday morning.

Charges previously were filed against Cooks in the Delaware Municipal Court, William Macklin, chief Delaware County sheriff's deputy, said today. He said that Cooks will be given a preliminary hearing in the municipal court and then may be bound over to the Delaware County Grand Jury.

THE CAPTURE of Cooks in a telephone booth in the eastern section of Columbus by two off-duty policemen Thursday night brought an end to a 40-hour manhunt, one of the largest in the history of central Ohio, that started about 9 a.m. Wednesday.

Reports from Columbus were that Cooks was arrested by Sgt. Sanford R. Lee and Patrolman Earl C. Jackson as he tried to call a minister in a second attempt to give himself up.

Columbus police surrounded the area around Cooks' residence in Columbus earlier in the day after he had called the Rev. John B. Quick and said he wanted to give himself up and asked the clergyman to accompany him to police headquarters.

BY THE TIME police arrived, Cooks had changed his mind and disappeared again. That was at about 1:45 p.m. It was late Thursday night when the two off-duty policemen took him into custody at the pay telephone booth.

The manhunt, which at one time included about 300 volunteers, sheriff's deputies, and state highway patrolmen on foot, horseback, in patrol cars and airplanes, was touched off after the Delaware County sheriff was notified of the attacks on the two women.

A large wooded and brushy tract of land just south of the Delaware Dam and house in which the attacks occurred was combed both Wednesday and Thursday morning without luck. Men were also posted around the area during the night Wednesday.

The search of the area was called off shortly after noon yesterday after sheriff's deputies received a report that a car was stolen from the north end of Delaware Wednesday night. They said they feared the suspect had escaped the trap, slipped into Delaware during the night and stole the car.

This apparently was true. The stolen car was found in Columbus near Cooks' home minutes after Columbus police had broadcast a description of it yesterday.

COOKS IS suspected of the criminal assault of the 24-year old mother once previously last December and also of attacking a 58-year old Orange Township woman April 10.

In each case, sheriff's deputies said, the man appeared at the house and asked to use the telephone because something was wrong with his truck. Once inside the house, he attacked the women, the deputies reported.

A truck, registered in Cooks' name was found abandoned on Rt. 23 just north of the Pennsylvania Railroad underpass Wednesday morning by sheriff's deputies. They said that he apparently parked the truck along Rt. 23 and walked the one-half mile to the house on Delaware County Rd. 213 where he is accused of attacking the two women Wednesday.

De Gaulle Asks More Strength For Presidents

PARIS (AP) — Premier de Gaulle unwrapped his ideas for a stronger executive today, proposing to give French presidents the power to fire premiers and dissolve parliaments.

Cabinet ministers disclosed this after he told them privately about his thinking on sweeping constitutional changes. He will carry his program to the people in a referendum this fall. French presidents are chiefs of state but have little real authority.

The ministers said they wanted a president elected by a larger representation of the people.

Election now is by the combined National Assembly and Senate. De Gaulle was said to favor an electoral college drawn from departmental councils and corresponding roughly to the U.S. electoral college.

The ministers said De Gaulle wants to bar Assembly deputies from holding Cabinet posts and to strengthen the Senate and make it a federal body including representatives from all French territories.

De Gaulle moved to re-establish civilian control over Corsica. He sent Guy Lamassoure there as new civilian governor to replace the one ousted by the Corsican Committee of Public Safety on May 24.

Union Is Voted In by Workers At Water Firm

By a majority of 12 votes, plant employes of the Marion Water Co. elected Thursday to become affiliated with the Utility Workers Union of America, AFL-CIO.

It was the first time in several attempts by unions to organize workers of the local concern that an affirmative vote had been in the majority.

Of 26 eligible voters, 19 balloted for affiliation, while seven voted for no union. Only plant and distribution employes voted.

The election was conducted by Miss Nora Friel of Cleveland, field examiner for the NLRB.

Otis Porter, manager of the company, said this morning that he "hopes sincerely that the union affiliation is for the best interests of the employes."

Warning for Ohio Is Broadcast by Bureau

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The Weather Bureau today issued a warning of severe weather conditions expected to hit Ohio this afternoon and up until 10 p.m. Danger of tornadoes was contained in the warning.

The bureau said the scattered severe thunderstorms and a few tornadoes are expected 60 miles on either side of a line from 20 miles southeast of Chicago to 30 miles southeast of Akron.

In Ohio this would reach southward to the northern portions of Darke, Miami, Champaign, Union, Delaware, Licking, Muskingum and Guernsey counties.

Rebel Chiefs Vow To Fight On in Lebanon

BEIRUT, Lebanon (AP)—Lebanese rebel leaders vow they will fight on against pro-Western President Camille Chamoun despite the intervention of the U.N. Security Council.

The vanguard of a U. N. observation group made plans today to carry out a Security Council directive to watch for the arms and men the Lebanese government accuses President Nasser's United Arab Republic of sending from the neighboring Syrian province to help the rebels.

After a lengthy meeting Thursday night, rebel leaders said if the council really wants to end the five-week crisis it should bar arms for the government from the United States, Britain, France Turkey, Iraq and Jordan.

"It is these arms which constituted the primary cause of the

Aide Is Target in House Inquiry

Hagerty Says President Has No Intention To Fire Adams

WASHINGTON (AP) — The White House said today President Eisenhower has no intention of firing Sherman Adams, his chief aide who is a target of House investigators.

At the same time, press secretary James C. Hagerty said there will be no White House reply to an earlier question by a reporter as to whether Adams' good friend, industrialist Bernard Goldfine, once gave Adams a $700 coat.

Rejects Request for Conference

Hagerty also said Adams has rejected reporters' request for a news conference at which to question him personally regarding his relations with Goldfine.

The affair had prompted Rep. Peter F. Mack Jr. (D-Ill) to say Eisenhower should fire Adams. Mack said that would be in keeping with an Eisenhower campaign pledge for a government "clean as a hound's tooth."

Three other Democrats on the House subcommittee checking federal regulatory agencies said it is up to Eisenhower to decide whether to discharge Adams, his top aide, because of Adams' dealings with wealthy Boston industrialist Bernard Goldfine.

Contacted Agencies

Adams Thursday acknowledged being a hotel guest of Goldfine, whom he described as an old friend. Adams also said he contacted federal agencies on cases involving Goldfine, but he denied bringing any pressure on Goldfine's behalf. He called such charges "unwarranted and unfair."

White House press secretary James C. Hagerty said Eisenhower agrees Adams' relations with Goldfine were not improper and that the President feels Adams' usefulness has not been jeopardized.

Rep. Morgan Moulder (D-Mo) said there was evidence of Goldfine having picked up a $1,300 tab following a three-day stay by Adams at Plymouth, Mass.

Names No Figure

Adams said Thursday the subcommittee could have disclosed that he and his wife were guests of Goldfine at the Mayflower Hotel in Plymouth last year. He named no figure. Earlier the subcommittee devoloped evidence of $2,000 worth of Boston hotel bills that Goldfine paid for Adams in the past four years.

Adams' statement, in a letter to subcommittee Chairman Oren Harris (D-Ark), was put out by the White House after subcommittee investigators reported allegations that Adams got the Securities and Exchange Commission and Federal Trade Commission to soften action against Goldfine.

Categorically Denies Charge

"I categorically deny such insinuations," Adams said.

Adams is a former Republican governor of New Hampshire where Goldfine has business interests.

At Hagerty's news conference, a reporter said indications are that Adams stayed in many different rooms on many different floors, ranging in price "from 37 to 65 bucks a day." The newsman asked how Adams could have thought he was occupying a continuing or permanent suite at the Boston hotel.

"Well, all I know," Hagerty replied, "is that it was his understanding, and that it was not until after the (hotel) records were subpoenaed that he learned Mr. Goldfine did not then maintain an apartment on a continuing basis."

Adams did not meet with reporters.

Harris said that, regardless of the Adams letter, he will go ahead with subcommittee plans to develop its case starting Monday with testimony from the SEC and FTC. The inquiry at this stage deals mainly with Goldfine companies.

Asked if he could say whether

Eisenhower Asks New Agency for Air Safety

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower today asked Congress to create a new federal aviation agency in an effort to avert air collisions in this jet age.

The Senate already is holding hearings on a bill by Sen. A. S. Mike Monroney (D-Okla) with the same general objectives. That proposal calls for unifying all air traffic control, both civil and military.

Serviceman Threatens To Crash Rented Plane

LONGVIEW, Tex. (AP) — The search for Donald Keeton, young Texan airman apparently bent on suicide in a rented plane, switched to this east Texas area today on the basis of information that he had made a brief landing near here.

The 19-year-old airman, whose engagement to a childhood sweetheart was broken last month, was on the ground two minutes at nearby Greggton at about 1:30 p.m. Thursday, then took off again. He hasn't been seen since.

Earl Cleveland, superintendent for Premier Oil Refining Co. of Texas, said Keeton asked for gas and was told he would have to go to the Gregg County Airport eight miles away.

He never showed up at the Gregg County Airport.

Cleveland said Keeton appeared confused and headed southwest—not in the direction of the Gregg County field. Cleveland did not

U.S.-Syrian Relations Better Despite Attacks

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
AP Foreign News Analyst

DAMASCUS, Syria (AP) — Strange things are going on in Syria, now in its fourth month as the junior province of the United Arab Republic. Public opinion toward Americans seems to have changed for the better — but the official propaganda against the United States is more violent than ever.

The official Damascus radio, commenting on the Lebanese crisis, referred to the United States a few days ago as a "starving wolf spreading terrorism in our countries, persecuting our people and seeking to undermine their legitimate national aspirations.

Attack Grows Vicious

The fury of the attack had not been matched even during the Syrian - Turkish crisis six months ago.

But the public in Damascus, Aleppo and other principal cities displays a distinctly more cordial attitude toward Americans and a pronounced relaxation in personal contracts.

Both private persons and government officials express keen interst in getting cultural presentations from the United States. Syrians are beginning once more to mix socially with Americans, for the first time since the Suez crisis in 1956. The fear of contact with Americans seems to be disappearing.

Fear Growing Red Influence

One reason appears to be that the Syrians—and their Egyptian partners — seem worried about the increasingly close involvement of the U.A.R. with the Communist bloc. This is particularly true of the business community.

The Russians are not being easy on the Syrians. In buying Syrian wheat, for example, the Russians are insisting on an arbitrary 8 per cent discount for spoilage. This is unheard of in such deals. Spoilage is usually arbitrated and seldom comes to more than 1 per cent.

Objections Received

Ohio Court Refuses Plea To Speed SUB Rulings

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Gov. C. William O'Neill still plans to call a special session of the Legislature this month, but his hopes of an Ohio Supreme Court ruling on the supplemental unemployment benefits (SUB) issue have vanished.

The court Thursday announced it would not shorten the 40-day period for filing briefs in the two SUB cases now before it. O'Neill has hoped the cases could have been disposed of so the Legislature would not be debating the issue at the same time the court was deliberating.

The court's announcement indicated several parties objected to waiving the 40-day rule. They have intervened in the cases in opposition to lower court decisions. These held that SUB and state unemployment benefits can be paid at the same time without the former being deducted from the latter.

The governor, in a statement today, commended the high court for its position on the SUB cases.

"The court is ready," O'Neill said. "Only one lobbyist is holding up this case.

Thursday he wrote a letter attempting to high-pressure the governor into preventing this issue from being considered by the Legislature before it is decided by the court, yet he is preventing the court from hearing it when all interested parties are ready to have it heard and decided."

The letter-writer was Fred J. Milligan, executive secretary of the Ohio Information Committee, an organization of some 1,000 Ohio employers opposed to SUB.

Following the court announcement, O'Neill told a news conference he still plans to call the legislative session and that he will set the date shortly. However, the governor ruled out the possibility it will be called next week.

O'Neill said it appeared "inevitable that it (SUB) will be before

Trust Fund Showing Drop

Social Security System Outgo Exceeds Income

WASHINGTON (AP)—For the first time in its history, the social security system is paying out more in benefits this year than it is taking in from taxes and interest.

Its trustees reported to Congress today that the Old Age and Survivors Insurance trust fund will drop about 428 million dollars in the fiscal year ending June 30, and may show a total decline of three to four billion dollars for the five-year period ending June 30, 1962.

Generally in Balance

But they emphasized that for the long-range future the system remains in balance for all practical purposes. They said the trust fund total should start another long-term rise in 1965.

The trust fund reached a peak of 23 billion dollars last June 30. The estimated five-year drop still would leave 19 to 20 billion dollars in the trust fund, which was set up specifically to meet such fluctuations.

Increases in several classes of benefit payments were cited by the trustees in making their revised estimates. They included:

1. More claims than expected were filed by persons first brought under the law in 1954 or 1956, especially farmers. Many of these people were already past retirement age and large numbers could qualify for benefits in a short period. This situation cannot be repeated because more than 9 out of 10 workers are now covered and no large groups remain to be covered in the future.

2. More women than expected have chosen to take a reduced benefit at age 62 instead of a full benefit at age 65. The report said this has no significant effect on the long-term cost. On the average, it said, the women will receive the same total amount of money regardless of which choice they make.

3. Because of the economic recession some older workers find it more difficult to keep or find a job, thus more than had been expected retired and applied for benefits.

Reduces Contributions

It was noted that the recession also tends to reduce tax contributions to the system below previous estimates.

The tax rate is now 2¼ per cent each on employes and employers on the first $4,200 of a worker's yearly earnings. It is to go up one-half per cent on each in 1960, 1965, 1970 and 1975. The rate for self-employed persons is half again as high.

Defy Superstition

CHICAGO (AP) — Phooey on Friday the 13th say members of a non-superstitious group who meet today for the first time since the last Friday the 13th—seven months ago.

The session will start at 5:13 p. m. and end at 7:13 p. m. Members will sit under umbrellas in groups of 13.

Man Killed, Wife, Policeman Hurt in Warren Shooting

WARREN, Ohio (AP)—A series of shootings that followed a domestic quarrel Thursday night left a man dead, his estranged wife wounded and in serious condition and a policeman wounded in the arm.

Harry Dean, 62, was slain by police after he shot his wife, Clara, 47, and wounded Patrolman Rudy March.

Dean had gone to his wife's home to discuss her application for a divorce and fired several shots at her with a .22 - caliber revolver.

Two bullets struck the woman in the abdomen and right hand.

Neighbors, who summoned police, said Dean shouted as he sped away in his car:

"If police come after me they'll never take me alive."

Patrolmen March and William Poulos stopped Dean about a mile from the shooting scene and ordered him out of his car. Dean fired and hit March in the right arm.

The officers returned the fire, six bullets hitting Dean.

Brooklyn Church Feud Continuing

NEW YORK (AP) — The long feud among parisioners of Holy Trinity Episcopal Church in Brooklyn erupted into a sidewalk scuffle that ended in a police station yesterday.

A hacksaw was brought into play when the assistant rector and a vestryman found the church door chained and padlocked. A vestry faction leader was accidentally scratched by the saw. The sidewalk altercation attracted a crowd.

A police station desk lieutenant attempted the role of peacemaker and offered police protection to the assistant rector if he wanted to enter the church today.

The clash was one of a series that have broken out at the strife-torn church in recent years. Because of the disturbances, Bishop James P. DeWolfe closed the church last July. The parishioners have been worshiping elsewhere.

Contrast in Attitude Toward U.S.

Venezuelans' Hostility Is Missing in Colombia

By LARRY ALLEN

BOGOTA, Colombia (AP)— It's only 781 air miles between this capital city of Colombia and Caracas, Venezuela, but they are worlds apart in the treatment accorded U.S. citizens.

Here there is warmth, sympathy and friendliness. In Caracas there is coolness that borders upon open hostility.

A passenger alighting here walks through two lines of smiling, blue-uniformed customs guards into the airport administration building. Passengers are informed over a loudspeaker: "You will pass through in just a moment, please, after immigration and customs formalities. While you are waiting, this is to welcome you to Colombia. Please have a cup of our fine coffee."

A WHITE-JACKETED boy immediately starts serving coffee—backbone of this nation's economy.

There's a quick look at passports and health cards and the passenger is ushered into the baggage reception room. Each passenger opens his suitcase but rarely does a customs official touch any of the contents. There's merely a glance and a smile, the traveler is on his way.

The whole process averages from 5 to 10 minutes, a far cry from what happens to the passenger—particularly a North American—who lands at Maiquetia, the airport for Venezuela's capital city of Caracas.

SOLDIERS AND National guardsmen, wearing steel helmets, carrying rifles, pistols, or even sub-machineguns, are on guard at Maiquetia. They bunch all passengers together and lead them to the airport administration building.

Then comes the long wait—45 minutes to two hours or more—before a traveler is called to present his passport and health card.

Every passport and health card is rigidly inspected. At another desk a Venezuelan, with a soldier looking on, flips through the cards in a filing cabinet, just to make sure no enemy of the state is trying to enter. After that, there's a rush by passengers for another room where 6 to 10 Venezuelans are typing out entry index cards. Here the wait can easily run into an hour.

THEN, IF A passenger doesn't have any Venezuelan money, he has to stand in line to wait until he gets some.

Finally, he pushed through soldier guarded doors into the baggage room where Venezuelans take their time about locating and delivering baggage. Once suitcases are opened, the customs employes usually rummage thoroughly through contents. When this is over, a customs employe slaps a stamp on baggage but it gets another scrutiny by an armed soldier who finally clears luggage to be taken out to a taxi, or private car.

The traveler then gets his first introduction to prices in Venezuela—the highest anywhere in Latin America, and topping peak prices in the United States.

Taxi drivers take passengers into Caracas—12 miles away—for the equivalent of 10 or 12 U. S. dollars. But if the driver believes you are a North American the price shoots up to $15.

RARELY DOES any Venezuelan give an American a smile, or say "thank you" when he is tipped. The American usually receives hostile stares or studied indifference.

Americans, other foreigners, and Venezuelans not only have to get exit visas to leave, but they also must show they don't owe any income taxes or any debts.

All this is in marked contrast to what happens in Colombia. Whenever you want to leave this country, all you have to do is to buy a plane or ship ticket, and have a visa for wherever you are going.

Here there's a smile from hotel employes, Colombians on the street, and an eagerness to be helpful and understanding. And Colombians say "thank you."

Miss Bachman Talks to Local Kiwanis Club

Shows Pictures, Tells Of Travels to Europe With Student Group

Carol Bachman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. Paul Bachman of 607 King Ave., took members of the Marion Kiwanis Club on a guided tour of Europe via color slides and a descriptive talk when she was the guest speaker at the Thursday noon luncheon held at Hotel Harding.

Miss Bachman spent 10 weeks last summer as a member of a student tour through England, Switzerland, Austria, Italy, Finland, and into Russia and Poland.

The group spent two days in Leningrad and four days in Moscow during which Miss Bachman took the many colored photographs which composed the picture portion of her travel-talk.

In all, the group visited a total of 13 foreign countries from the middle of July through September.

Miss Bachman, who just last week was graduated from Denison University with honors, plans to enter Tufts College in Medford, Mass., for graduate work in diplomatic service.

Her sister, Marilyn, is now visiting in Paris.

Her father, Kiwanis Club treasurer, served as program chairman of the day and introduced his daughter.

During a brief business meeting, Lloyd Williams of the agricultural committee announced a fishing derby to be held June 19 beginning at 6 a.m. Breakfast will be served at the site of the derby at 8 a.m. by the committee.

A district meeting will be held June 25 in Crestline by the Kiwanis Ohio lieutenant governor, Norman Painter, President Robert F. Williams announced.

Guests introduced by Harald Denzer were Jasper Burt and John Guthrie of Marion and Thad Malesh of Carey.

WHO'S AFRAID OF FRIDAY, 13TH? Unconcerned by the arrival of a Friday the 13th, actress-singer Sue Ane Langdon adds insult to injury by perching a black cat on her shoulder. 7 Morrow County Churches Receiving Foster Gift Organs

CLEVELAND (AP) — By the end of next week, 100 small churches in 17 Ohio counties will have received electronic organs as gifts from Claud Foster, 85-year-old Cleveland philanthropist.

Before Foster completes his gift program sometime next spring 700 little churches in all of Ohio's 88 counteis will get two manual electronic organs worth about $1,300 each retail. Distribution started about five weeks ago after months of planning.

Foster limited his half-million-dollar gift project tto Ohio churches but hundreds of appeals have poured in from all states. Even within Ohio there were several hundred more applications than the program could accommodate.

The 14 organs scheduled for distribution next week are for Summit, Medina and Cuyahoga counties. During the previous two weeks, distribution was concentrated in Allen, Richland and Morrow counties.

Organs installed in the last two weeks included:

Allen County — Westminister Methodist, Harrod; Bethel Christian Union, Rt. 2, Delphos; Los Creek Chapel, Lima; Marion Ridge, Elida; Christian Union, Rt. 4, Antioch; Rockport Methodist; Christian Union, Vaughnsville; Market Street Pilgrim Holiness, Lima; Marion Baptist, Rt. 1, Delphos.

Johnsville Board Hires Swank as School Head

MOUNT GILEAD—Rod Swank, 29, of Utica was employed as superintendent of the Johnsville Board of Education at the board's meeting this week. He is a native of Butler in Richland County and is a graduate of Ohio Wesleyan University.

The Marengo Board of Education interviewed several candidates for the post left vacant by the resignation of Richard Fuller who is accepting a position as business administrator in the Sylvania Exempted Village School District.

Sen. James Kyle, native of Cedarville, O., sponsored the bill that made Labor Day a national holiday.

Ordination Rites Slated Sunday for Galion Man

GALION—The distinction of being the first member of the First United Church of Christ to be ordained in the church as a minister of the gospel will belong to Harold H. Hessenauer this Sunday.

He was graduated last Friday from Eden Theological Seminary in Webster Groves, Mo., where he received the Bachelor of Divinity degree.

Mr. Hessenauer, the son of Mrs. Fred W. Hessenauer of Galion, and the late Mr. Hessenauer, will assume the pastorate at the Fort Seneca Community United Church of Christ at Fort Seneca, O., July 1.

Lad, 14, Pulls Drowning Boy Out of Olentangy at Columbus

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—A 14-year-old former Richmond, Ind., boy leaped into the rain-swollen Olentangy River here Thursday and came out pulling a half-drowned 16-year-old lad he had never seen before.

Five-foot, 140-pound James Vanatta was walking along the river near the Ohio State University campus when he heard a woman's screams.

He raced to where he could see Mr. and Mrs. Ray Blevins and they pointed to where their 16-year-old stepson, Edward Rowe, had disappeared under the muddy water of the river.

Jimmy quickly stripped down to a swimming suit he was wearing under his clothes and plunged into the swift current.

When he got to the spot where Edward had gone under, Jimmy dived to the bottom.

On the third dive he felt a limp form lying on the bottom. After losing his grip several times struggling to the shore with the unconscious youth, Jimmy dragged him onto the bank and began administering artificial respiration. That is when firemen arrived. Edward later was reported in satisfactory condition at a hospital.

Mrs. Blevins said the family had been fishing when they heard Edward call to a girl on the opposite bank that he was going to swim across to her. About three-quarters of the way across, the youth yelled for help and then disappeared.

Jimmy, who wants to be a lifeguard, credited his ability to carry out the rescue to three years' swimming training at Indiana YMCA camps. His parents, four brothers and three sisters recently moved here from Richmond, Ind.

Pick-up and removal of garbage will be made at residences at least once each week and from businesses as deemed necessary by the individual business owner. Pickup and removal of rubbish will be made at least every two weeks.

Costs will be charged on a monthly basis and will be calculated in amounts not to exceed 20 gallons of garbage and 20 gallons of rubbish.

Ridgedale Fails To Act On Redistricting Issue

The Ridgedale Board of Education adjourned until Monday night after failing to reach agreement Thursday night on redistricting of elementary schools.

A contract for 1,800 tons of stone was awarded to Paul Gregory. The stone will be used for surfacing the parking lot at the new building.

In other business, the board read and approved a new handbook for high school students.

The Rotary Outpost will be held on Monday and Wednesday each week at the Mark Street School playground from 9 a.m. until noon.

The Y-Men's Outpost, normally held at Silver Street School, has been moved to the Oakland Heights School ground. It will be held Tuesdays and Thursday from 9 a.m. until noon.

The programs at the playgrounds will consist of group games and recreational programs for boys 8 through 12.

Playground leaders, James McGinn and Ron Buckley, are under the direction of Mr. Johnson.

Youth Activities

BOY SCOUTS

A street dance will be held Saturday night on the square in Caledonio by Boy Scout Troop 68 of Caledonia.

There will be dancing from 8 to 11 p.m. and refreshments. Proceeds will go toward helping finance summer camping activities at Camp Owens.

Tickets cost 50 cents and will be available at the dance.

In addition, the scout troop has made plans for a family night affair Tuesday, June 24 at 7:30 p.m. It will feature presentation of the charter and a court of honor. Parents and friends will be guests.

Teen-Ager Dance Planned Tonight

The Marion Rotary Club Benefit Dance featuring Bruce MacDonald will be held at the YMCA tonight from 8 to 11 o'clock.

More than 500 junior and senior high school students are expected to attend.

MacDonald is a top disc jockey at station WJW in Cleveland. He will spin records, direct the dance programs, and present free records and albums as prizes.

Price of admission is 50 cents per person. Tickets may be purchased either at the door or from members of the Hi-Y, Tri-Hi-Y, Co-ed Council, or junior and senior high sons and daughters of Rotary members. Rotary Club members, their wives, and the YMCA staff will chaperon the dance.

Proceeds from the dance will be used to complete the redecoration of the YMCA Club Co-ed Room.

School Board at LaRue Okays One Resignation

The LaRue Board of Education accepted one resignation, employed a new social studies teacher and re-employed another at its regular meeting Thursday night.

The resignation of Fred Glancy, mathematics teacher, was accepted. Thomas Wise was employed to teach social studies and Patrick Cronin was re-employed as a social studies teacher.

Last night's action leaves the board with two vacancies to fill before next fall—a mathematics teacher and a fourth grade teacher.

Injury To Son Threatening Loss of Eye Reunites Parents

GLENDALE, Calif. (AP)—Donald Rose and Virginia Rose stood by the bed of their 5-year-old son, Donny, as a minister reunited them in marriage.

But it was Donny who reunited them in spirit.

His father was working in Fort Wayne, Ind., when he learned Donny had been struck in the left eye by a fragment of pottery and might lose sight in the eye. The father flew to Los Angeles.

Donald, 32, and Virginia, 37, had been divorced two years. But as they prayed together at Donny's bedside they realized they belonged together.

The boy won a 1,000-to-a chance—an operation was successful and the eye was saved. Thursday night, in his room at Glendale Memorial Hospital, Donny won something else: a father.

Donny's physician, Dr. Orrie Ghrist, was the best man.

Donald Sr. is going back to Fort Wayne for his things. Then he'll move here to rebuild his family life.

"We have to stay together," he said. "If anything else comes up, we'll just straighten it out, that's all."

Heating Unit Discussed

The New Bloomington Board of Education Thursday night discussed revamping the school's heating plant at a meeting with engineers from two heating firms. The board, which is considering modernization of the school's coal furnace, took no action at the meeting.

In other business, the board ordered new desks and chairs for the first, third, seventh and eighth grade classrooms.

50 Years of Distinguished Service

The Very Rev. William J. Spickerman will be honored for his 50 years in the ministry with a series of impressive services, receptions and a dinner this weekend.

In all respects he is most deserving of the many tributes that will be paid to him.

For the last 30 years of his 50 as a priest he has been pastor of Marion's St. Mary Catholic Church, and he has served his parish faithfully and well.

It is completely fitting that the church and the new Marion Catholic High School should provide the setting for several of the weekend events, and that the whole celebration should be arranged and directed by the Catholic community.

But Father Spickerman's tremendous record of service and achievement in Marion is by no means limited to his own church.

On the contrary he is well known, admired and revered by citizens of all faiths. In recognition of that fact Mayor Wendell L. Strong has proclaimed this week "Father Spickerman Week," and the program this weekend will be almost as much a community affair as a church event.

For many years Marion has been able to point with justifiable pride to the friendly spirit of cooperation existing among its various religious groups.

Recently this has been most evident in the outstanding relations between the public and parochial schools in assistance given on building projects, and the mutual consideration of other educational problems.

This approach has been a community accomplishment, of course, but there is little doubt in anyone's mind that Father Spickerman has been a leader and tower of strength in the development of that spirit.

There can be no greater source of satisfaction than a lifetime of service devoted to one's fellow men, and no greater tribute than grateful and widespread realization of that service.

William J. Spickerman has given 50 full years to such a calling, and this weekend he will learn beyond question that his efforts truly have been appreciated.

Labor Issue Exists—but When?

Sen. Ives of New York and Sen. Kennedy of Massachusetts, sponsors of the labor reform bill before the Senate, want to keep it out of partisan politics.

Their desire to do this is in conflict with the desire of other senators and representatives, who think the labor reform issue finally has reached a boiling point and cannot be ignored.

Some who think this are Republicans, and some are Democrats. They are divided, just as Sen. Ives, a Republican, and Sen. Kennedy, a Democrat, are divided. But the key to partisan division on labor reform in a showdown would be the close identity of the Democratic party with labor leaders who want no labor reform at all, or nothing more than an appearance of reform, to neutralize the issue in the 1958 congressional elections.

The question for Democrats is whether the labor reform issue that exists can be neutralized and cooled off this year.

The question for Republicans is whether the issue can be heated up and brought to a showdown at the polls this year.

The question for Democrats and Republicans who might be caught off base if a showdown developed this year is which way to jump.

EVERYBODY CAN AGREE on one point — that a labor reform issue does exist in the popular mind and awaits only the attention of political partisans to bring it to a showdown.

The issue is defined in the labor reform bill now before the Senate: Should abuses of union power that have flourished under the protection of laws that were intended to protect bona fide unionism from its opponents be dealt with by federal law?

What has not been defined and could become the basis of a vigorous partisan debate is what constitutes an abuse of union power.

Opinions on this range from the view that only such flagrant abuses as theft from union treasuries should be curbed to the view that unionism has become an economic juggernaut that must be controlled, as Congress once was forced to control trusts and monopolies.

THIS IS THE labor issue. It exists. It is one of the most widely discussed subjects in the nation. Most politicians would like to keep it under wraps, because they are afraid it would run away with them if they turned it loose. Other politicians think it already has been kept under wraps so long that silence is becoming a disservice to their constituents.

Sen. Ives and Sen. Kennedy, sponsors of the bill before the Senate, are in a middle position. They want to take off the wraps but in a way that would not start a partisan debate.

But how can anything so momentous as the most debated domestic issue of the times be kept from turning into a partisan debate? Isn't that the service that justifies the two-party system — to air both sides of all questions in strong dispute?

They Could Put Down the Crowbar

Fred J. Milligan, executive secretary of the Ohio Information Committee, which has been in the thick of the fight over the payment of supplemental benefits to Ohio wage workers, finally has brought the basic issue into the open.

Commenting on the effort to legalize SUB in Ohio as something other than remuneration, which would be deductible from unemployment compensation under the Ohio law, Mr. Milligan wonders why it wouldn't be simpler for employers and unions with SUB provisions in their contracts to make new agreements.

The issue, says Mr. Milligan, is whether the parties to a private contract shall conform to the policy of the state, or whether the state shall change its policy to suit the parties to a private contract.

The parties that have agreed to SUB provisions can do anything they want to do with the money that has been put in reserve. Why, then, are they so insistent on changing the policy of Ohio to let them do what no one else would have a right to do?

The answer is that they hope to use SUB as a crowbar to force a drastic policy change in Ohio. The change they seek would open the way to ultimate state responsibility for paying industrial employes what would amount, in effect, to a guaranteed annual wage, in contrast with unemployment compensation, which is designed to be a tide-over subsistence allowance until an unemployed worker can return to a payroll.

Thus, what is presented to the public as an issue over SUB is only incidentally an issue over SUB. That could be settled easily over a lazy weekend by the parties to work agreements containing SUB provisions. What they really want to have settled, using SUB as a lever to force a change in Ohio policy, is whether or not a guaranteed annual wage for workers ultimately will be made a responsibility of the state of Ohio.

Too Many Tornadoes

We do not recall that tornadoes were mentioned by William Allen White in that famous editorial, "What's the Matter with Kansas?" But another tornado season brings the state's peculiar plague to attention again.

Kansas has had and probably will continue to have more of these twisting windstorms than any other place on earth. The cause, contrary to those who would like to blame sunspots and nuclear tests, is the state's position at the point where warm, moist air masses moving north from the Gulf of Mexico collide with cool, dry air masses moving east from the Rockies.

About 95 per cent of the world's tornadoes are caused by this collision and the bulk of the tornadoes occur in or close to Kansas. There is only one redeeming feature about a tornado. Its damage is inflicted over a relatively small area — customarily a path about a mile wide and 16 miles long.

Kansas has been catching it again, as it expects to at this time of the year. The tornado season starts in April and ends with June. The climax comes in June—and it is most likely to come in Kansas with the greatest ferocity. The same thing can happen anywhere. No state is immune, although Nevada has had no hurricane for some 70 years. But one state, Kansas, is most susceptible.

The Once Over

By H. I. Phillips

Tests by doctors and psychiatrists before issuing licenses to any auto driver are urged in court which says roads are loaded with cars driven by people who are mental cases. (Ya mean there are some drivers who are not! ! !) There can be no safety until emotionally disturbed are kept from driver's wheel, he says. He's correct.

The simple truth is that mankind gets emotionally disturbed the moment his hands grip the wheel of a car. The idea of having psychiatrists examine applicants is good. But who will examine the psychiatrists?

The psychiatrist who treats people humanely on a couch will chase them up telephone poles on the open road. And many a physician after advising patient to slow down will leap into his sedan, cut corners, dash through red lights and "wonder where the yellow went."

Possible psychiatric case reports:

Case No. 1. Substantial citizen and grad of four colleges but has spells when he undergoes complete character change, turning mean and dangerous. Spells occur only when on open road in auto. During exam on office couch psychiatrist put auto wheel on couch and started invisible motor. Patient immediately became violent and drove couch through office walls.

Case No. 2. Driver arrested for operating car recklessly, showing no regard for others. Taken to police station and asked for his certificate of examination by psychiatrist he replied, "I have none. I'M A PSYCHIATRIST." Desk sergeant immediately became emotionally disturbed.

Case No. 3. Operator, taken in for passing school bus, ignoring school zone and otherwise behaving like a menace to public safety, was placed on couch and asked to tell all. To question, "Did you get a health certificate for your driving liceense?" he replied with complete frankness, "Doctor, let's level. At the wheel of an auto I am not a man with a health certificate. I am a hog with a registration number."

Show Him the Way!

West Tightens Ties

By David Lawrence

Lawrence

Prime Minister Macmillan's visit to the United States is really an important development in world affairs. What is coming as a result of the conference this week is a better understanding between the governments of Great Britain and the United States of just what must be done to win the "cold war." It is rather on the planning side than on the making of particular decisions now that the President's meeting with Prime Minister Macmillan takes on a broad significance for the future.

The fact that stands out conspicuously now is that the "cold war" has reached a virtual stalemate on the military side. Billions of dollars are being spent for military preparations and this program has been accepted as a necessary policy. But what has sometimes been spoken of as an "overemphasis" on the military turns out to be a lack of emphasis on political and economic questions.

Neither the United States nor Great Britain can afford to underemphasize military necessities. The Western nations are not rattling the sabre but, because they tell the world freely about what they are doing, there are obviously more news dispatches coming from the West about military preparations than from behind the Iron Curtain.

The real result of the conferences with the British Prime Minister is that there now is a hope of bringing the political and economic problems up to a point of equal emphasis with the military.

THIS, OF COURSE, is a long-range affair and involves questions of money that are not easily resolved, especially during a period of Treasury deficits in Washington and recession in various parts of the United States.

But the planning done this week is not for just a month or a year but for the long pull ahead. The important truth is that the United States and Great Britain, through their chosen representatives in government, have exchanged ideas and fully understand each other.

Secretary of State Dulles naturally took a prominent part in all of the discussions. On more than one occasion this week the British Prime Minister mentioned friends that he has the fullest confidence in the American secretary of state.

The news of this relationship of mutual trust is probably disappointing to the partisans who have been trying to make political capital out of Mr. Dulles' alleged lack of "prestige" abroad. The high officials of the British and American governments see eye to eye on essential points of policy and are fully resolved to go ahead in the "cold war" on a common basis.

JUST WHAT can be done on the political and economic side to help win the "cold war"? Can Soviet infiltration and subversion be checkmated? What steps can be taken to stop the inroads being made by Soviet money and barter in some of the weaker countries?

The answers to these questions were not found in the conferences this week but in principle there was agreement that the situation that lies ahead is a challenging one and cannot be solved by any rigid formula. A combined economic strategy board may be created by the two governments.

There will have to be adjustments from time to time, particularly in the field of trade relations. There is no subject more complicated than tariffs and it cannot be denied that there is substantial protest inside the United States against lowering tariff barriers.

Many companies in America feel that import quotas should be imposed on foreign products just as other governments impose them on American products.

PASSAGE of the President's reciprocal trade bill on Wednesday by the House, with a large margin of votes, is heartening to America's allies. For the drive to rehabilitate world trade will be stimulated by the knowledge that the present reciprocal trade law is to be extended for five years.

Up to now every "summit conference" between the heads of government on the Western side has been concerned primarily with emergency situations created by the Soviet offensives on the political front.

Today the Soviet government is moving in to try to get the United States to send it needed materials.

Moscow really wants these articles in order to be better able to trade with some of the countries which international Communism is trying to infiltrate.

So it is inevitable that the political side will sometimes conflict with the economic and financial sides.

It would be far different if Moscow had a free government and one that was not creating a constant threat through the distribution of arms to weaker countries and through attempts to subsidize "neutralist" governments in the hope they will bow to the will of Communist imperialism.

Certainly the Macmillan-Eisenhower-Dulles conference can mean a great deal to strengthen the position of the Western powers in the "cold war."

Prolific Young Writer

By Hal Boyle

NEW YORK

Novelist Evan Hunter, a young man with a gift for controversy, is winning fame and fortune by playing God.

HAL BOYLE

"You have to do that when you are at the typewriter," he said.

"You can have your own insecurities and doubts when you're not writing. But when you're in that room with just yourself, the machine and the paper—you have to play God. You have to feel in control, and you have to believe people want to hear what you have to say.

"If you begin to doubt this, you can't write."

Few doubts seem to have assailed Hunter. At 31, prolific beyond his years, he has produced 175 stories, some 30 novels and three plays, written under his own name and at least four pseudonyms. Total output has been more than three million words.

"I'm not really happy unless I am writing," said Hunter, who is dark-haired, blue-eyed, and stands a slender 6 feet. "I feel guilty."

Evan, a former schoolteacher, is equally adept at writing science fiction, mysteries, sport stories and children's books. But his main recognition has come from problem novels.

In 1954 he stirred up a literary storm with "The Blackboard Jungle," an 80,000-word portrayal of teen-age savagery in the schoolroom. He turned out the book in exactly two months. It has sold more than two million copies.

"I SOLD THE movie rights for only $35,000," he said ruefully, "and the picture earned more than $8,000,000 dollars."

Hollywood paid $150,000 for his latest book, "Strangers When We Meet." This novel, which blasts the lid off "the coffin of suburbia," already has gone into a second printing, and has drawn both huzzahs and brickbats from commuters.

Hunter sturdily defends his attack against the conformity which he feels blights the lives of thousands of American families living in new suburban housing developments.

HUNTER HIMSELF has escaped that "60-by100-foot green coffin" he complains about. He lives with his wife and three sons in a 10-room house on a four-acre estate beyond the suburbs.

There he methodically turns out 5,000 words or so daily, and never waits for inspiration.

"I don't believe there is any such thing," he said. "Inspiration is a kind of myth promoted by pseudo-artists who live in Greenwich Village. If writing is your profession, you sit down and write whether you are inspired or not."

Weird Relationship

By James Marlow

WASHINGTON

Release of nine Americans, taken prisoner when their Army helicopter landed in red-run East Germany, is being delayed because of this country's weird relationship with the Communist world.

It goes like this:

The United States and other Western nations do not recognize the Communist government of East Germany. This country, allied with West Germany, wants German reunification under free elections.

The Western Allies argue that in accordance with the American-British-French - Russian postwar agreement on Germany, all their dealings with East Germany must be done with the Soviet Union.

WHEN THE NINE Americans and their helicopter strayed into East Germany June 7 and landed there, this country, instead of appealing to the East Germans for their release, appealed to the Russians.

On June 9 the Russian Embassy in East Berlin refused to step into the case, saying the problem was under the jurisdiction of the East German government. This was one more needle to force American recognition of the German Communists.

The next day, June 10, at his news conference Secretary of State Dulles said the United States would deal with the East German Reds, if necessary, to obtain the nine men's release.

DULLES SAID: "When it comes to getting Americans out of a country, we don't stand on ceremony, you deal with the kidnapers."

But he added: Dealing with the East Germans in this case still wouldn't mean this country recognized the East German government.

On June 11 the East German Communists promised a quick release for the nine Americans if the United States acted in a "normal and reasonable" manner although they didn't explain what those two words meant. They'd negotiate, they said.

Thursday Lincoln White, a State Department spokesman, was asked if this country had started negotiations for the nine Americans. He said no. Why not? The Russian refusal to step in was in a statement. It wasn't a formal note.

SO, ALTHOUGH Dulles had said this country wouldn't wait on ceremony, White said this country was waiting for a formal Russian refusal before turning directly to the East Germans.

The Soviet Union made it official today in a letter delivered to the U.S. Embassy in Bonn. It said return of the Americans is "not within the competence of the Soviet forces" and referred U.S. authorities to the East German government.

The State Department might decide to try again at a higher Soviet level. Otherwise the problem becomes one of technique—how to deal with a regime whose existence as a government is not officially acknowledged. A Bonn embassy spokesman said he didn't know what the next step would be.

Asked how long this country intended to wait for the formal note of Russian refusal before appealing to the East Germans, White said he didn't know but "we don't intend to wait forever."

Dealing with the East Germans, whom it doesn't recognize, will put this country in the same position in which it found itself when dealing with the Red Chinese whose government it doesn't recognize, either.

Ever since Chiang Kai-shek in 1949 was thrown off the China mainland by the Red Chinese and fled to Formosa, this country, now allied with him, has refused to recognize the Chinese Communist government on the mainland.

Nevertheless Americans fought the so-called Chinese volunteers in Korea and worked out a Korean armistice made possible only because the United States and Red China abide by it.

And, still not recognizing the Red Chinese, this government has been negotiating with them since 1955 for the release of Americans they hold as prisoners.

A Country Cemetery

By Truman Twill

The country cemetery that our family visits the evening before May 30 each year was serenely beautiful, as it always is.

There is a vacant space in front, where a church once stood. It was demolished years ago, and the ground was leveled, but no graves ever have been made there. Like the smaller burying ground across the road, which also was originally a churchyard, the cemetery is a continuing memorial to the religious faith that sustained the members of the little communities established in pioneer times.

In the old sections that stood close to the church are headstones with dates of birth in the late 18th century. Many headstones mark the graves of infants who died in the early years of the 19th century. Infant mortality must have been the hardest part of pioneer hardship.

Each year before Memorial Day, there is a community project to put the cemetery in order for the Memorial Day service that is held there each year. This is an organized effort—a gesture of community respect for all the residents of this ancient city of the dead, whether they have been forgotten or not.

The individual efforts, like those of our family, are directed toward the beautification of particular plots, in memory of dear ones who are not forgotten by their survivors.

All the relatives I have been closest to are commemorated there, in one place or another. In the plot next to the one we visit are the graves of my favorite aunt and uncle. Not far away are the graves of other uncles and aunts who were dear to me in their time.

My mother always meets some other visitors she knows. This year, it was a man, a stranger to her, who asked if she once had been a native of the community and what her maiden name was. He had recognized his first schoolteacher, although he had not seen her for 65 years. He remembered a young woman of 20, teaching a one-room country school.

Other years, she has had similar reminders that her pilgrimage to that country cemetery is not only to the scene of memory but to a place of living values, kept green by all who come there to make the cemetery more beautiful each Maytime.

There is no way to know who may have stood this year at my father's grave, noting that someone had planted flowers and trimmed evergreens at the corners of the burial plot. But we stood at another family plot and marveled at the meticulous care with which someone had planned and planted a bed of flowers so perfect it scarcely looked real. Every grain of peat moss had been smoothed into place. Every blade of grass had been tended. Someone must have worked all day.

Surrounding the old cemetery are the allotments and new houses that spill over on the outskirts of all cities. Traffic hums back and forth on the highway. Overhead is the age of aviation. But below is the respected past. The birds are singing the same songs heard in the same place a century ago—and longer. It is the same hallowed ground, evoking the same respect for all the good that men have done in their striving for a world that they hoped would be a little better when they left it than it was when they found it.

News of Other Years

40 YEARS AGO—Germany concluded negotiations promising Alsace to Prussia and Lorraine to Bavaria.

Eleven persons, including four children, were killed in a German air raid over the French city of Calais.

"Gus" Welch, Indian athlete and graduate of Carlisle School, became the first Indian captain in the United States cavalry.

German prisoners captured by Americans on the Marne front testified that Germany was making a supreme effort to win the war by fall.

20 YEARS AGO — The Ohio state board of control met to approve a formula to distribute $1,500,000 in loan funds to counties pressed for poor relief moneys.

A four-day annual district conference of the American Lutheran Church opened in Marion at Good Hope Lutheran Church. More than 300 pastors and laymen attended.

Following a report on Marion's first annual policeman's and fireman's ball of a profit of $1,168, it was decided to proceed with purchase of one-way short-wave radio equipment for city and county law enforcement agencies.

10 YEARS AGO — A farm hand of near Cardington was killed and a Crestline man injured in a traffic accident near Shelby.

Harry Victor Mounts, 58, of 1191 E. Center St., Marion county auditor for 13 years, died in City Hospital following a major operation.

DEATHS and FUNERALS

Paul R. Emery

Paul R. Emery, 60, of 680 Windsor St. died at 12:05 p.m. Thursday in General Hospital. He was taken to the hospital Monday and suffered from a heart ailment. A native of Waldo, he was an inspector at the Marion Power Shovel Co. 42 years.

Truck Hits Kenton Grill; Driver Held

KENTON — Damages estimated at $2,000 were done to the "68" Grill in Kenton this morning when a truck careened into the front of the building, knocking down several posts and collapsing a portico.

The vehicle crashed into three posts holding up the grill's portico and the latter crashed down on both the truck and a parked car owned by Chalmers Vermillion of Kenton, proprietor of the eating place.

Shop Stewards Hampered by Tighter Rules

Companies Demand Some Time at Jobs From Committeemen

DETROIT (AP)—An army of 20,000 minor union officials has become a vital factor in the United Auto Workers' fight to win new contract demands from the automotive Big Three.

They are the union shop stewards and plant committeemen now working under unusual conditions to handle the problems of nearly half a million General Motors, Chrysler and Ford UAW workers during their current no-contract period.

The stewards and committeemen figured prominently in the UAW strategy when the union's contracts with the Big Three ran out about two weeks ago. Since then, for the first time in over 17 years, the auto plants have been operating without a contract.

GM, Chrysler, Ford and the union all said when the contracts expired that they would do their best to keep the plants operating normally while negotiators tried to agree on a new pact.

It's nearly impossible to find anyone who sees chance of agreement before August. The UAW Thursday set in motion the machinery to take strike votes among GM, Ford and Chrysler workers but emphasized there was no plan for an immediate strike.

New Problems Arise

The auto companies' no-contract operations brought up new problems daily for workers and management alike.

Typical of the union stewards is Laymon Good of UAW local 7 which represents 4,000 UAW workers at Chrysler's Kercheval-Jefferson plant.

Under the recently expired contract, Good devoted practically all his work time to handling complaints and grievances.

Chrysler, like the other auto companies, pays the stewards and committeemen the rates they would get if working on their regular jobs in the auto plants.

Tighten Up Rules

In the no-contract period, Chrysler and the other companies have tightened up. At Chrysler, a union steward now has to report to his regular job for the first hour of his work day. He also has to work it the first hour after lunch and the last hour of the day.

Norman Matthews, director of the UAW's Chrysler department, charged the new company policy was an attempt to intimidate other unionists. Chrysler, denied the charge saying that without a contract, it was not bound to have union representatives in the plants but would do so under tightened rules.

UAW officials said if the companies succeeded in cracking down on the stewards, the average plant worker might become intimidated and accept possible unreasonable work standards.

House Kills Key Provisions of Defense Reorganization Bill

Ike-Backed Changes Are Voted Down

Measure Now Goes To Senate; Similar Treatment Indicated

WASHINGTON (AP)—Two influential leaders predicted today that the Senate will approve a defense reorganization plan in about e form it passed the Houseth the form it passed the House Thursday by a 402-1 vote.

"I think we'll give President Eisenhower all the powers that a president should have to act as our commander in chief," Sen. Richard B. Russell (D-Ga) said in an interview. He is chairman of the Senate Armed Services Committee.

Sen. Bridges Agrees

Sen. Styles Bridges (R-NH), senior GOP member of the Armed Services Committee, agreed in a separate interview, saying:

"We will not accomplish everything the President wants but I think we can reach a common ground that will be acceptable."

As passed by the House, the bill would give the secretary of defense greater authority over unified combat commands. It also would strengthen the Joint Chiefs of Staff and centralize weapons research and development under a single director.

While saying the bill generally is acceptable to him, Eisenhower urged changes in three sections that he said would hamper streamlining operations or permit "legalized insubordination."

Ike Dealt Sharp Defeat

But House Democrats, joined by a few Republicans, dealt Eisenhower a stinging defeat Thursday in rejecting four moves to bring the reorganization bill closer in line with his wishes.

Amid politically charged debate, the House rejected three separate amendments before defeating 211-192 a last-ditch motion to send the bill back to the Armed Services Committee with instructions to write in all the Eisenhower-backed provisions.

In preliminary voting, the House rejected 183-170 a move to delete a requirement that the secretary of defense exercise his authority over the Army, Navy and Air Force only through their own civilian secretaries.

Refuses To Change Section

Then it refused 123-97 to change a section allowing the secretary or military chief of any of the three services to carry appeals to Congress when higher orders are issued to change or abolish combat functions. Congress could block such an order and the president could not veto the congressional action.

By a 150-82 vote the House next turned back an amendment to water down a provision permitting any service secretary or military chief to take defense problems to congress on their own initiative.

Escape From Prison

Institution officials said Gulley was admitted to the prison hospital sometime Thursday under the pretense of having an infected tooth. The other two escapees were nurses, working at the third floor level in the building.

Mr. Green said that Gulley apparently sneaked to the third floor to join the two male nurses in escaping out a back window.

The two nurses were believed to be wearing regulation pants and shirts with white surgical gowns Gulley was dressed in a similar outfit, befitting a hospital ward patient.

Description of Men

The following description of the men was released:

Gulley, light brown hair, 5 feet, 11 inches in height, 165 pounds, green eyes and fair complexion. He has a one-half inch elongated scar on his right wrist and a similar burn scar near it.

Williams, brown hair, 5 feet, 11 inches in height, 190 pounds, blue eyes, ruddy complexion. He wears a tattoo on his upper left arm and has a one-inch scar in the same area. Another tattoo appears on his right shoulder.

Murphy, brown hair, 5 feet, 4 inches in height; 119 pounds, brown eyes, fair complexion, and tattooed blue dot on left cheek.

None of the three had earned an honor inmate status, Mr. Green said.

Gulley was transferred here from the Ohio Penitentiary March 26, 1957, after being admitted to the penitentiary Jan. 15 of the same year.

Williams was sent here Jan. 26, 1956, after spending slightly more than three years at the penitentiary.

Murphy was transferred to the local institution in March of 1957, just two months after being admitted to the penitentiary, Mr. Green said.

The superintendent noted that Murphy had no known address previous to prison commitment. Williams had resided in Kentucky where a young son still is believed to be living. He was divorced from his wife. Gulley's last address was Indiana where his family lives.

The flurry of recent escapes was set off April 30 when an honor inmate drove away from the prison in a two-ton pickup truck owned by the training school. The vehicle was found abandoned a few days later in Cleveland railroad yards.

Two other inmates made a successful bid for freedom when they drove away from the institution grounds June 4 in an employe's car, taken out on the pretext of a test drive after it was repaired.

The auto later was found abandoned in Toledo, but no trace of the honor inmates yet has been found.

Mr. Green reported later this morning that the regulation dungarees Murphy had been wearing were found discarded in Bucyrus, according to a report received by police there about 9:45 a. m.

At the same time it was reported that a rear license plate from a truck parked in the south side of Bucyrus was stolen. The dungarees were abandoned near the scene. Found in the pockets were a screw driver, band-aids and wet cigarettes, police said.

The fact that the men stopped in Bucyrus seemed to cast doubt on the fact they were spirited away by a friend who may have picked them up on Lykens Rd. behind the institution.

A check by both Marion police and Bucyrus police disclosed that no vehicles had been reported stolen early today in either community.

Incorporation Articles, Filed by Marion Trio

Three Marion men, Cleo R. Ludwig, Robert E. Kibbey and Ralph Howard, have filed articles of incorporation with Ted W. Brown, secretary of state, for Royal Burger, Inc.

The company presently is overseeing the construction of two "pilot" models of new-type drive-ins, one at Celina, O., and the other at Tallahassee, Fla. The Florida business will open July 1, with the Ohio one slated for a July 15 opening.

Mr. Ludwig, president of the corporation, says the new drive-in plan calls for no car-hops. Mr. Kibbey is secretary of the new business, while Mr. Howard is legal counsel.

Adams

Eisenhower has any intention of firing Adams, Hagerty shot back: "Sure I can. The answer is of course not."

At a news conference Thursday, Hagerty was asked whether Goldfine ever gave Adams a $700 vicuna coat. The press secretary replied he had no information on that, but would check.

Nothing More To Say

When the matter was raised again at his news conference today, Hagerty said Adams had set forth his position in his letter Thursday to Rep. Oren Harris (D-Ark), chairman of a House investigating subcommittee, and Adams would have nothing more to say.

The Adams letter to Harris did not deal with any question about a coat.

Hagerty was asked whether Adams and the White House are taking the position that the question of whether Adams got such a coat is none of the public's business.

The press secretary replied that the newsman's question was based on a premise—that Adams actually did receive a coat — "that I know nothing about."

Avoids Direct Reply

Asked then whether he went to Adams to find out whether the presidential aide did get a coat from Goldfine, Hagerty made no direct reply. He simply repeated that Adams had said all he is going to say in his letter to Harris.

As for the request that Adams hold a news conference, Hagerty said that he relayed that request to Adams, and Adams rejected it.

Another reporter quoted Maj. Gen. Harry Vaughn, who was Army aide to President Truman, as saying on Aug. 31, 1949, that he did not regard his acceptance of a freezer unit as a matter involving influence "because I received it from a dear old personal friend."

Truman administration critics made a big point of such gifts.

Sees No Similarity

Hagerty was asked whether he saw any similarity between the Vaughn incident and the Adams-Goldfine matter.

"No," the press secretary replied.

As for the possibility of Adams testifying before the Harris committee, Hagerty said he has heard no discussion of that.

Senate Fight On Kennedy Bill Develops

McClellan Protests As Republicans Bid To Plug 'Loopholes'

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. John K. McClellan (D-Ark) told Senate colleagues today they might wreck the labor control bill if they load it with controversial amendments.

The chairman of the Labor Rackets Investigating Committee said to those seeking even tighter controls, "We can load this bill down with things I favor and others favor — and we'll get no legislation at all."

Made 22 Changes

He said the Senate Labor Committee had made 22 changes in its original bill in line with suggestions he made or favored and the pending measure should be enacted to make sure "we have made some progress."

Sen. Barry Goldwater (R-Ariz) called for plugging more loopholes in line with suggestions McClellan has made for tightening union controls.

As the Senate plugged away in the second day of debate, 44 new amendments, mostly offered by Republicans, put in their appearance. Eighteen represented a package of Eisenhower administration proposals, offered by Sen. H. Alexander Smith (R-NJ). Some covered major efforts to rewrite the bill to put in more stringent provisions.

With a 12-hour session behind them, some senators predicted the bill could be disposed of by late tonight. Others said the debate would go into next week.

Eleven amendments were voted on Thursday in a long day and night of political jockeying. Nine were offered by Republicans.

Ten Adopted

Ten of the amendments were adopted, most of them without any dispute. Several cleaned up points in the bill objected to by the Eisenhower administration.

Republicans professed themselves well satisfied with the first day's results, contending that acceptance of the amendments showed the bill had many holes.

Democrats replied that many of the amendments were trivial, and were offered in an effort to give backing to GOP charges that the original version was soft on labor.

Sen. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass), floor manager for the bill, opposed only one of the amendments. It was beaten 47-38, but it affected only a minor section of the bill. However, some senators thought this vote might set a pattern for defeat of the more stringent amendments to be offered later by Republicans.

Essentials Unchanged

The amendments adopted Thursday did not change the essentials of major provisions of the bill as it came to the floor. These would set up a union democracy code including secret balloting in elections and would require full public financial reporting by larger unions, union officers and employers on labor relations matters.

Storms Predicted Tonight, Saturday

With only a day's respite, the rains came back to Marion County Thursday night following a day in which the mercury rose to a humid high of 80.

And the weatherman, taking note of this morning's heavy overcast, predicted more thundershowers tonight and Saturday. By mid-morning it was raining lightly and a brisk shower swept the area at noon.

All told, .28 of an inch of rain feel during the night. The temperature got no lower than 66, in spite of the cooling effect.

A high of 85 was forecast for today, with a expected low of 65 tonight to be followed by a peak of perhaps 83 Saturday.

The damp and dreary forecast to the contrary, Marion residents still could count themselves lucky today.

In Kansas, Missouri and Illinois, tornado warnings were hoisted again this morning. A twister rumbled through a section of Kentucky and heavy rains gave added rise to flood fears in Iowa and Indiana, as well as other sections of the nation.

Thunderstorms were the order of the day in Texas, Florida and the northern tier of states from Washington and Oregon eastward to the Great Lakes.

3 Marion Boys, One Prospect Youth Attend Boys State Camp

Three Marion boys and one from Prospect were to check in at Camp Perry at 5 p.m. today for the American Legion sponsored 21st Buckeye Boys State program.

During the week long convention, they will be candidates for various offices in a mock state government and will participate in election campaigns.

Election Slated Monday

Election for the various offices will be held Monday after which the successful candidates and their appointees will participate in the operation of the affairs of the 20 cities and four counties comprising the "49th state."

The Marion boys were taken to Camp Perry today by Mr. and Mrs. Forest Sykes of 556 S. Vine St.

Their son, Peter G. Sykes is one of the three boys attending from Marion. The others are: Richard A. Snodgrass, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Snodgrass of 277 Summit St. and Joseph Krigbaum, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Krigbaum of 706 Mt. Vernon Ave.

The fourth boy is Thomas Rodgers, son of Mr. and Mrs. Rex Rodgers of Prospect who was to be taken to the camp by his parents.

Some 1,000 boys, all top high school students, from throughout Ohio will attend this year's program at Camp Perry, according to E. J. Sklenicka of Cleveland, president of the board of trustees of Boys State.

Through a series of caucuses and conventions, and by the circulation of petitions, some 800 boys will become candidates for offices and for judgeships in the full range of courts. The losers will become appointees, lawyers and members of the highway patrol. More than 100 of them, regardless of politics, will play in the band.

Gov. O'Neill To Speak

Gov. C. William O'Neill, who in the past has served as a Boys State counselor and chief counselor, is expected as a guest speaker at the night inaugural program. Other speakers scheduled include Dr. Thomas A. Dooley, famed young medical "ambassador" in the Far East; U. S. Sen. John W. Bricker; Dan Hanning, special agent for the FBI, and R. C. (Scotty) Young, lecturer on Americanism.

The program will be spiced with plenty of recreation, including swimming in Lake Erie, movies and variety shows.

Boys State will close Sunday morning, June 22, with graduation exercises and the awarding of special honors.

Defense To Give Arguments In Clinic-Lastrapes Hearing

The defense was expected to open its case today as a hearing on the Frederick C. Smith Clinic's injunction suit against Dr. Thomas S. Lastrapes gathered impetus going into its third day in Common Pleas Court.

Attorneys said they will attempt to wrap up the hearing late this afternoon or Saturday. Presiding Judge Jay S. McDevitt has informed them he must return to Mount Vernon Monday for three weeks of court cases there.

The clinic's attorneys called Dr. Frederick G. Smith to the stand his morning. Paul D. Michel of the Donithen, Michel and Davis law firm said Dr. Smith may be the clinic's last witness.

Three Men Testify

Testimony yesterday was taken from Dr. Philip W. Smith, Dr. Lastrapes and Earl W. Manter, accountant for the clinic.

The clinic is seeking a permanent injunction to enjoin Dr. Lastrapes from practicing in Marion County for four years dating from Jan. 1, 1957. The clinic charges that the former clinic staff member violated a contract by engaging in practice here after leaving the clinic staff.

The issue centers on a clause in the contract in which Dr. Lastrapes agreed to refrain from Marion County practice for four years in the event he left the staff.

Say Contract Invalidated

Defense attorneys have held that the contract was invalidated by a change in the clinic's partnership shortly after Dr. Latsrapes joined the staff. They also contend the covenant is unreasonable and restrictive.

Under questioning yesterday, Dr. Lastrapes testified that he signed two agreements modifying his original contract agreement. The agreements were signed in October and in July of 1956, he said.

In effect, the agreements said his contract would remain effective under an existing partnership and would not be voided under a 1955 partnership change.

Among evidence introduced at the hearing was a copy of the contract bearing Dr. Lastrapes signature and dated June 21, 1954.

Mr. Manter testified yesterday afternoon concerning the financial operation of the clinic and an objection raised by Dr. Lastrapes regarding salary terms.

He said he still felt it necessary to call the Legislature despite the fact the SUB question will not have been decided by the Supreme Court before the lawmakers meet. The governor said:

"In my opinion the matters I will place before the Legislature are of such importance that we cannot delay beyond the date I have indicated."

BOND HUNT SUCCEEDS

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. (AP)—R. N. VanderVart, Albuquerque, reported several months ago that $5,000 worth of savings bonds were missing from his home. Recently he recalled he hid them in the back seat of a car he once owned. It was traced through two succeeding owners to a third who gave permission to search. VanderVart found his bonds.

Analysis Identifies Oil From Sewers

An oily substance which entered the W. Center St. sanitary sewer in large quantities two weeks ago has been identified as No. 2 fuel oil, Safety-Service Director Howard W. Travis reported today.

He said the analysis identifying the substance was made by the Erie Railroad laboratory in Meadville, Pa. Whether or not the substance was diesel oil still is not certain, Mr. Travis said. The analysis noted that the substance found in the sewer had a 30 degree higher flash-point than diesel engine oil, he said.

The oily substance last week was threatening serious damage of the sewage treatment plant but Mr. Travis said today heavy rains this week have diluted the oil and it is not a serious problem now.

Three Indicted In Vice Probe Are Sentenced

Three of six persons indicted by the Marion County grand jury on vice charges appeared in Common Pleas Court this morning, changed not guilty pleas to guilty and were sentenced by Judge Paul D. Smith.

Phyllis Trammer, 36, alias Virginia Murphy, of 184 Senate St., was placed on five years probation on a prostitution charge.

Violet Riley, 33, alias Amber Robbins, also of the Senate St. address, was sentenced to 30 days in the county jail on a prostitution count.

Elmer Vigorito of near Marion was put on five years probation on a perjury charge and fined $300 and costs on a charge of permitting gambling in a place of public resort.

Thomas Fetter represented the two women. Frank Wiedemann was counsel for Vigorito.

The disposition of these cases today leaves but two of the original six to be dealt with.

Cases still to be heard in connection with the vice investigation are those of Sam Nicolosi of 436 Mary St. and Carl Miller of near Marion, both of whom are charged with gambling. Both are represented by George A. Piacentino.

Marion Area Auto Mishaps

One person was slightly injured in one of six traffic accidents investigated Thursday by Marion police.

Hurt when his bike was struck by a car at Klerx and N. Main streets at 3:15 p.m. was Mike Moore, 9, of 536 Roberts Ave.

He suffered a scratch on the chest, but required no immediate medical attention.

The boy pushed his bike from behind a stoppped car into the rear fender of a car westbound on Klerx St., driven by Victor E. Culp, 31, of 279 Thew Ave., police said.

A car driven by V. F. Douglas, 39, of Columbus, backed into another car driven by Doris C. Bigler, 21, of 223 W. Columbia St. at S. Main and W. Columbia streets at 9:35 p.m. Police arrested Douglas on a charge of driving while intoxicated.

An accident in the 200 block on N. Main St. at 10:27 a.m. involved cars driven by E. J. Burke, 65, 373 S. Greenwood St., and C. H. Mercer, 51, of Warren, Mich.

A car driven by J. J. Laucher, 32, of near Waldo, was struck from the rear at W. Columbia St. and Blaine Ave. at 3:46 p.m. Driver of the other car was E. S. Busler, 37, of 662 Sugar St.

A car driven by C. W. Clark, 72, of 342 Reed Ave. and a truck driven by C. M. Bellamy, 37, of near Shreve were involved in an accident in the 200 block of E. Walnut St. at 2:05 p.m.

tragic turn of events in Lebanon," a rebel statement said.

The United States and Britain have made no secret of their arms shipments to the Lebanese government, a legal regime and an ally. But there has been no evidence of shipments from the other nations the rebels named, and the idea appeared to be to incite pro-Nasser elements against favorite targets of U. A. R. propaganda.

Will Not Affect Movement

The rebel statement said attempts to cut off arms supplies from Syria "will not affect our movement or deflect it from its declared objective" of overthrowing Chamoun. The U. A. R. has denied aiding the rebels.

The Syrian border is 150 mountainous miles, and military men estimate that at least 5,000 men with reconnaissance planes would be needed to close the border to infiltrators. But the Council's hope was that the presence of its representatives would deter help to the rebels from the U. A. R. government.

Khrushchev Denies Rivals Downgraded

MOSCOW (AP)—Former Premier Nikolai Bulganin has undergone a serious operation but is expected to return to work within a week or so, Premier Nikita Khrushchev said Thursday night.

Khrushchev denied reports that Bulganin, former Premier Georgi M. Malenkov or Communist theorist Mikhail A. Suslov has been politically downgraded or worse.

He told correspondents at a British Embassy reception Suslov is vacationing on the Black Sea and Malenkov is alive and well.

Told that according to one Western report Malenkov was seriously injured in a hunting accident, Khrushchev commented: "Malenkov is not a hunter. Furthermore, this is not hunting season. But don't worry, he is alive."

Malenkov was named director of a power station in eastern Kazakhstan after he was removed from a top Kremlin post last June. He served as premier from 1953 to 1955.

Khrushchev fended off a question about whether Bulganin will return to his post as chairman of the Soviet State Bank, which he took when he left the premiership last March.

His conversation with Western correspondents was the first in several weeks.

This dispatch was delayed nearly 19 hours by what appears to be a toughening censorship in Moscow.

Moscow censorship can soften or harden from day to day and it is difficult to assign a reason. However, censors usually are sensitive to possible changes in Communist policy or leadership.

Delaware Sesqui Caravan To Stop Here on Saturday

A Delaware sesquicentennial caravan is scheduled to make a 30-minute stop in downtown Marion Saturday morning during a promotion swing through four counties.

Mayor Wendell L. Strong was contacted today by the sesquicentennial committee and agreed to provide a police escort for the caravan during its journey through the city.

The committee also announced it plans to present the mayor with an honorary Delaware citizenship card, a shaving permit and a sesquicentennial hat. Other promotion material will be distributed to onlookers, the committee said.

Included in the caravan will be bearded "brothers of the brush" and Sesqui Belles attired in flowing skirts and bonnets which were fashionable 150 years ago. A brief musical fanfare also is planned.

The committee, however, announced its caravan trip is contingent upon the weather and if predicted, thundershowers hit this area Saturday morning the event probably will be cancelled.

On its way to Marion the caravan is scheduled to stop in Waldo and will pass through Prospect, Richwood, Magnetic Springs and Marysville on its return trip. During the afternoon it will swing through parts of Madison, Franklin and Delaware counties.

Missing Plane

know he was talking to the missing airman until he saw an Associated Press Wirephoto in Thursday's Longview News.

The youth, who is stationed at Keesler Air Force Base, Biloxi, Miss., rented a plane from a Gulfport, Miss., airport. Pursuers lost track of him in northern Louisiana near Monroe.

Keeton's appearance lent support to belief he was heading for Dallas, home of his childhood sweetheart, Doris Lynn Bowling.

The 17-year-old blonde, who broke off her engagement to Keeton in the belief she was too young to marry, offered a "come home" message via newspapers and radio: "Please think of your mother if you won't think of yourself. All of us are terribly upset."

A search of the Longview area began.

Keeton left an Alexandria, La., airport Thursday with less than two hours fuel supply—but a helpful tail wind.

Bible Words for Today

EXODUS 6:7 — "And I will take you for my people, and I will be your God." (RSV)

* * *

The late Wendell Willkie was evidently thinking God's thoughts after Him when he spoke in terms of "one world." While in the early years of the human race, God chose the Hebrew nation to be His people in a peculiar way, His interest has always been in "all nations," "all the people," "all the ends of the earth," and it was in order to reveal Himself to all the world and to save all people that God selected this one nation to be blessed above all the peoples of the earth. Further, He so loved the world that He sent into it His own Son, Jesus, who was to save the people from their sins. And just before Jesus returned to the Father, He commissioned His followers to go into all the world and preach the gospel to every creature.

He gave a short biography of his life and talked on what he hopes to accomplish if elected.

John Zuck, chairman of the Marion County executive committee, gave a report on a meeting of the county chairmen held June 6 in Columbus and announced the date for the DiSalle caravan in Marion County will be July 30.

A social hour followed in charge of Kelley Shelton, president of the Democratic Club.

Labor Bill Will Travel Long Road in Congress

By VICTOR RIESEL

Early on the morning of D-Day plus 12 (years)—namely last Friday at 8:15 a.m. President Eisenhower was being briefed on another looming battle in another fight for decency. This was in the war on crime and looting. This briefing came after the President interrupted a special breakfast discusion of world crises to ask what progress was being made in Congress' passage of new labor and anti-racketeering laws.

VICTOR RIESEL

Mr. Eisenhower was as crisp as the breakfast bacon when he was told that there would probably be no new labor laws this session. He listened carefully to three of the 15 Republican congressmen who breakfast with him regularly. They were Representatives Peter Frelinghuysen, New Jersey; John Rhodes, Arizona and Joe Holt, Calif., members of the House Labor Committee. They sharply criticized what was happening in the Senate and predicted the labor bills would not come up to the House in time for consideration this year.

MR. EISENHOWER then said he would keep his eye on developments. He said he felt strongly that some reforms were needed. He pointed out that he had sent a special measure up to the hill.

He added, if necessary, he would issue a public statement calling attention to the impasse.

The President revealed he had been following the exposures of Sen. McClellan's racket-busting committee and felt something would have to be done.

Whatever the President had in mind will need to be implemented swiftly if there are to be any new anti-racketeering laws to follow Sen. McClellan's and Bob Kennedy's exposures. Even if the Senate were to go 'round-the-clock one of these nights, it couldn't get a new labor bill over to the House of Representatives until late in June.

This had the House labor experts furious. Their sensitivities have Shakespearean qualities. The congressmen consider themselves human and insist that while all members of Congress are equal under the law, the Senate considers itself more equal than the House.

THIS GOES for democrats as well as Republicans. One of the labor specialists is Rep. Ludwig Teller (D-NY). He put it this way:

"The House doesn't like the way it is being treated in the closing months. Bills are thrown at us as though we were an open throughway to the White House.

"The day is over when we will pass everything with big majorities just because the Senate sent it over. We have very competent men on the House Labor Committee. Yet when we try to hold hearings and call in witnesses, they are piqued and say, "Why question us twice? Why repeat the Senate?' Well, we feel we have the right to hold hearings. We are no less important than the Senate."

Rep. Teller says there are some startling flaws in the pension and welfare bill sent over by the Senate.

He plans three weeks of public testimony by labor, business and insurance executives. This bill will therefore not be ready for discussion by the House itself until early July. Then it has to go back to a joint Senate-House conference to smooth out the differences before it can go to the White House.

NOTE, PLEASE, that this is the famous bill to prevent looting of pension and welfare funds. It has been some years in the making. It has nothing to do with the anti-racketeering bill of Sen. John Kennedy and Sen. Irving Ives, which is now being prepared in the Senate.

Obviously it will take months before this anti-racketeering bill can get to the President—unless he personally moves it along.

First it must clear the Senate itself. Then it must go to a subcommittee of the full House Labor Committee. Then it must be debated on the House floor.

If the House labor committee is busy with the pension bill until early July, it won't finish with the Senate's new anti-racketeering bill until August, or even September, if the usual routine is followed. By that time they'll be talking to themselves. Congress is going home to campaign before then.

Ike may not be as successful this D-Day as he was 12 years ago.

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — The Methodist Church is making plans for a film biography of Francis Asbury, who was consecrated the first American Methodist bishop in 1784.

Board of Appeals Says Pike Subject To Gasoline Levy

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The Ohio Turnpike is a public highway as far as Ohio's five-cent-a-gallon gasoline tax is concerned, the State Board of Tax Appeals has ruled in turning down a claim for a 36 cents tax refund.

The claim was filed by Wellington F. Roemer, Inc., a Toledo insurance firm, for tax on gasoline used by an employe, John J. Neenan Jr., when he drove on the turnpike last November.

Ohio law provides that gasoline not used on public highways is not subject to the state tax.

The company contended the turnpike is not a public highway. It noted that laws governing collection of the highway use tax on trucks do not regard the turnpike as a public highway.

The company applied for the refund and was turned down by the state tax commissioner Feb. 19. It then appealed to the board which ruled Thursday that the tax was applicable to turnpike travel.

The claim was the first filed by a motorist trying to get a gasoline tax refund for travel on the turnpike.

Two Bucyrians Charged With Area Break-In

BUCYRUS — Charles Ashmore, 22, and Manzo Surgener, 23, both of Bucyrus, were bound over to the Crawford County grand jury on charges of breaking and entering, at their arraignment Thursday before Judge F. H. Baerkircher.

Ashmore pleaded guilty to the charge while Surgener entered a plea of innocent. Bond on Ashmore was set at $3,000, with that on Surgener $2,500. Neither was able to post the respective amounts and both are in the Crawford county jail.

The pair were charged in connection with a break-in of the Scioto Trail Drive-In north of Bucyrus early Wednesday. They were apprehended in Bucyrus by city police shortly after the owner of the drive-in, W. P. Leuthold of near Bucyrus, fired four revolver shots into the side of a car leaving the site of his business.

The car in which Ashmore and Surgener were riding was neatly punctured by four bullet holes.

The grand jury will convene June 24.

Wyandot Collision Injures 2 Women

BUCYRUS—A 93-year-old Mansfield woman was one of two persons injured in a two-car collision six miles west of Upper Sandusky at the intersection of Rt. 30-N and Wyandot County Rd. 9 Thursday, Bucyrus post patrolmen reported today.

They said the mishap occurred at 10:34 a.m. when a northbound auto on the county road, driven by Dean Wright, 67, of near Carey, pulled onto the highway into the path of a westbound vehicle and the two collided.

According to the report, the westbound auto was driven by Helen B. Beatty, 56, of Mansfield, who suffered a bruised knee. Minor damage was done to the Wright car while the Beatty vehicle was damaged considerably, patrolmen said.

Also injured was Mary Brodd, 43, a passenger in the Beatty car, who suffered a fractured wrist. The injured were treated at Wyandot Memorial Hospital and released.

Patrolmen said Wright was charged with failure to yield the right of way and will appear in Upper Sandusky Municipal Court.

The U. S. Construction Co. of Upper Sandusky was awarded the contract for improving the road and representatives of the firm were expected to attend the Delaware meeting, the engineer's office said.

Car Hits Pole, Motorist Hurt

Delaware Man Suffers Chest, Back Injuries

DELAWARE — A Delaware man was hospitalized late Thursday in one of two area accidents reported today by state patrolmen of the Delaware post.

Admitted to Jane Case Hospital for treatment of multiple bruises and possible chest and back injuries was James R. Fisher, 30.

Patrolmen said he was injured when his auto went out of control on Delaware County Rd. 72, just south of here and struck two poles about 5:17 p.m.

According to the report, the westbound vehicle swerved off the right side of the road where it first struck a small pole and then crossed to the left side to smash into a power pole. Officers said the auto traveled 422 feet before coming to rest.

Fisher's car was demolished and the accident still is under investigation, patrolmen said.

Two cars were damaged heavily when they collided on County Rd. 21, one mile north of the Franklin County line in Delaware County at 9:15 a.m. Thursday, patrolmen said.

The mishap occurred when a southbound car driven by Jack Atkinson, 17, of Westerville, rounded a sharp surve and struck the front end of a northbound auto driven by John L. Warner Jr., 17, also of Westerville, officers said. No injuries were sustained.

Mechanic Dies In Crash After Stealing Plane

HUNTINGDON, England (AP) —A U. S. Air Force mechanic stole a bomber plane early this morning and zoomed off alone on a mystery flight. He crashed to his death a few miles away in the kind of mishap that gives the British the jitters.

Left-wing British leaders insist that the presence of American bombers armed with nuclear weapons adds to the island's dangers—that someone might go berserk or accidentally drop one of the atomic bombs on Britain.

The plane that crashed this morning carried no bomb.

Headquarters of the 3rd U. S. Air Force announced that the plane was an obsolete Tornado light bomber, one of the last two in use at the U. S. air base at nearby Alconbury.

Just what prompted the runaway flight was not known. The Air Force said the plane was piloted by an airman who had no instruction in flying.

The runaway crash came only 10 minutes after another accident involving another U. S. Air Force plane from Alconbury—a collision in flight between an American jet trainer and a Royal Air Force Canberra bomber. Two Americans and two Britons died in that crash.

Names of all three dead American airmen were withheld until their families could be notified.

In British industry the time lost in strikes is about a tenth of that lost through industrial accidents and about a hundredth of that lost through illness.

Indians Land Billy Hunter in Deal for Carrasquel

Score Ready for Bullpen; Orioles Grab 7-5 Victory

WASHINGTON (AP)—Herb Score, the Cleveland Indians' star southpaw who has been out of action six weeks with an ailing arm, may be available for bullpen duty during the Tribe's four-game series with the Washington Senators opening tonight.

Score told Manager Bobby Bragan in Baltimore Thursday that he feels ready to pitch a few innings in relief.

Feels No Pain

"I threw as hard as I could and didn't feel any pain," Score said after pitching nearly 30 minutes in a morning workout.

It was during the Indians' last visit to Washington that Score suffered an inflamed ligament of the arm and had to leave the mound April 30.

In a move designed to strengthen the infield, the Indians Thursday traded Chico Carrasquel to Kansas City for Billy Hunter, a steady fielder at second, third and shortstop. Hunter will join the Tribe here today.

The 30-year-old Hunter is known as a weak hitter, but after being informed of the deal Thursday, he hit a triple and a double, driving in two runs, in the Athletics' 4-1 victory over the Yankees.

Carrasquel, also 30, who went to the Indians from the Chicago White Sox in 1956, ended his career with the Tribe by getting three hits and driving in two runs as Cleveland dropped a 7-5 decision to the Orioles at Baltimore Thursday night.

Right-hander Ray Narleski (7-4), will pitch the series opener for the Indians here tonight. He will be opposed by southpaw Chuck Stobbs (2-4).

Tribe Nears Cellar

Thursday night's loss was the Indians' 10th in 15 games on their extended trip and dropped them into sixth place, only a game and a half from the American League cellar.

The Indians tied the score, 4-4, in the fourth with three runs, two of them coming from Rocky Colavito's eighth home run of the season. They took a 5-4 lead with a run in the fifth.

Baltimore went ahead for keeps with three runs in the bottom of the fifth on a double and two singles.

The Pickaway County shooter, in winning the Class A division of the championship event, broke all 200 targets used. Some 167 shooters from six states are entered.

Joe Hiestand of Hillsboro won the Class AA section, shattering 199 targets. George Wagner of Dayton was the class B winner with 197 targets.

Neil Chrisley, who has been hitting home runs for the Washington Senators, hit 15 in 114 games with Indianapolis in 1957.

Redleg Ace Nips Cards On Six Hits

CHICAGO (AP) — Cincinnati righthander Bob Purkey, one of the National League's winningest pitchers, will be going for his sixth straight win and ninth victory in 10 starts as the third-place Redlegs open a four-game series with the Chicago Cubs today.

Johnny Briggs (0-0) will go to the mound for the Cubs. The series, and the Redlegs road trip, ends with a doubleheader Sunday.

Monday the Redlegs open at home with the St. Louis Cardinals.

The current trip, one of the most successful in recent years, pulled out of St. Louis Thursday with one win, one loss and one called game. The Redlegs have now won 8 of their last 11 games.

Gives Up Six Hits

The win came Thursday when Brooks Lawrence held the Cardinals to six hits while his teammates walloped 10 hits and poured five runs across the plate in the Redlegs' third shutout victory of the season.

Lawrence allowed only two Cardinals to reach second base, struck out five and didn't give a single walk to his former teammates.

Vinegar Bend Mizell was charged with the loss, his sixth in nine games. He was relieved in the seventh by Lindy McDaniel.

The Redlegs collected two homers, a two-run clout by Ed Bailey in the eighth and a solo by Frank Robinson in the ninth. It was the fifth homer of the season for both men.

Score 2 in 6th

Cincinnati broke into the scoring column in the sixth when Pete Whisenant walked, moved to second on Robinson's single and scored on Don Hoak's single. Robinson moved to third and scored on Gus Bell's single.

In the eighth, Bell beat out a bunt and came home with Bailey's homer into the right center field stands.

Yesterday's Stars

Pitching — Brooks Lawrence, Redlegs, gained his third consecutive complete game victory with a six-hit, 5-0 shutout over the Cardinals, walking none and striking out five of his old mates as Reds took third place.

Hitting — Harry Anderson, Phillies, drove in three runs in 4-3 victory over the Dodgers, triggering a comeback that overhauled a 3-0 deficit with a two-run double and singling home the clincher in the ninth.

2 No-Hitters Registered In Little League Contests

One Federal League game was played Thursday night and Whirlpool shut out Empire 9-0, with Wynn hurling a no-hitter.

The Washermen scored once in the first, again in the second, added two runs in the third, three in the fourth and a pair in the sixth, all on four hits.

Wynn, enroute to the victory, fanned 12 Empiremen and gave up no bases on balls. Thomas, on the rubber for Empire, registered 11 strikeouts but gave up nine free passes.

IN AMERICAN League action National City Bank took a no-hit 10-0 shutout victory over Mac's Trading Post and Marion County Bank beat Isaly's, 11-8.

The Bankers scored four runs in the second, added two in the third and four more in the fourth to fourth to bring the game to an early halt under the 10-run-lead rule.

Thomas went the route for the victors, fanning 10 Mac stickmen, and issuing no bases on balls. Caudell was the losing pitcher, getting a trio of strikeouts and giving up three strolls.

National City played flawless ball. Macmen were charged with four errors. The Bank's Ballinger was credited with a double, while Armstrong and Thomas both clouted triples.

Thomas had moments of abandon and he dusted off a trio of Trading Post batters, but his control was on hand when the going got rough.

MARION COUNTY Bank found itself on the short end of a 3-0 score before it got steamed up. The Bankers tied it up at 3-3 in the second, added four runs in the third, one in the fourth and three in the fifth. Isaly's scored thrice in the third, two more times in the fourth.

All considered, Marion County got 11 runs in nine hits and made a pair of bobbles. Isaly's got eight runs on 10 safeties and was also guilty of a pair of boots.

Taylor got credit for the victory, fanning 10 and giving up one free pass. Leonard was tagged with the loss, getting four strikeouts and issuing six free passes.

Top man at the plate for the Bankers was Clemons, whose hardwood accounted for three hits in three trips. Leonard poled a brace of doubles in three times at bat for Isaly's. Stevenson belted a homerun for the Isaly's cause.

In American loop standings to date, National City Bank leads the pack with five wins and no defeats. Mac's and Marion County Bank are tied for second with 2-3 records, while Isaly's resides in the cellar with a 1-4 mark.

Deadlock With 71's

Metz, Bolt, Boros Share Open Lead

TULSA, Okla. (AP) — Twenty years ago Dick Metz, then a star of the pro golf circuit, had the National Open championship all wrapped up going into the last round, only to lose it with a horrible 79.

Today Metz, a weather-beaten 50, was out in front again as the Open went into is second round. And he probably was the only person on the premises who thought he had as good a chance of staying ahead as the two players who were tied with him.

No One Shoots Par

Sharing the lead with Metz after an opening day in which no one could equal par on the heat-seared, windswept Southern Hills course were Tommy Bolt and Julius Boros. They shot 71—real good golf on a rugged day when some of golf's best known stars had to settle for 75s. Southern Hills' par is 35-35—70 for a tough hilly 6,907-yard layout.

"A harrowing, heartbreaking experience" was what veteran Gene Sarazen called it after posting a score of 84. There were plenty of others who agreed with him.

Metz, who finished second to Ralph Guldahl in the 1938 Open after his memorable blowup, last played in the championship in 1954. Since then he's been running a ranch, playing in a few minor tournaments each year and considering himself as retired.

Mangrum, Stranahan Tied

One stroke behind going into the second round were Lloyd Mangrum, another tested veteran who won the Open in 1946, and 35-year-old Frank Stranahan. Two behind at 73 were 48-year-old Jimmy Demaret and Bruce Crampton, a 22-year-old Australian pro.

All that helped make the 75 shooters look pretty good. There were 20 of them, including Ben Hogan, a four-time winner of the Open who would like to be the first to win a fifth, twice-champion Cary Middlecoff, and Sam Snead, who never has won the big one.

After the second round, the field is reduced to the 50 low scorers and ties for 50th for the 36-hole finale on Saturday. It usually takes about 150 or better to make it.

Robert Hamrick, Fremont, Ohio, fired a 40-43—83.

Carter Meets Besmanoff in TV Ring Clash

NEW YORK (AP) — For 18 months, Harold Carter has been soaking up Nietzche, Schopenhauer and Voltaire. Tonight at Madison Square Garden he samples a little Besmanoff.

Besmanoff comes under the heading of "required work" for Carter, who once was a ranking heavyweight contender. Nietzche and his stable were road work for the mind.

Willi Besmanoff is a German strongboy. A stocky 5-9½, Willi came to this country just about the time Carter disappeared into the Army in early 1957. Ring magazine now lists the Teuton No. 9 among the challengers of Floyd Patterson.

Tonight's match will be carried on network (NBC) radio and television, starting at 9 p.m. (est).

Big Eight All-Star Contest To Follow Pony Loop Tilt

A good crowd is expected to be on hand tonight when the Ohio big Eight Fast Ball all-star game is played on the Lincoln Park diamond. The event is slated to get under way at 8 p.m., immediately after a Pony League all-star fracas which will begin at 6:30.

The feature contest, in which 16 players from both the western and eastern divisions of the league will be on hand, is to be played as a benefit, with proceeds ticketed for the Baseball for Boys program here.

THE TWO TEAMS will be managed by pilots of the 1957 champions in both divisions, with Lawrence Hedden of the Gibsonburg Dolites calling the plays for the west, and Paul Maosek of the Lorain Od Dutch doing likewise for the east.

Harold Smith, the district softball commissioner, will introduce all players prior to the contest and afterwards will award medals to each. In addition, Mayor Wendell L. Strong will present a trophy to the game's "most valuable player."

John Hachten and Gene Mull will umpire the game, with Charm McCrery the official scorer.

The all-star roster is as follows, with players picked from each team:

Western division: Fritz Walters, Jim Riley, Dick Gherman, Don Johnson (Marion); Miranda, Everett, Tinciotti, Manera (Toledo); Gra, Robitski, Tyson, Riley (Gibsonburg); and Keller, Loman, Buckholtz, Kimble (Fostoria).

Eastern division: Hutton, Stam, Holliday, Finney (Akron); Frey, Sweet, Hunter, Enderle (Norwalk); Hemminger, Marshall Barker Smith (Tiffin); and Smith, McKinnon, Butchko (Lorain).

THE ROSTER for the Pony Leaguers is:

VFW — Rankin, Anderson, Paulus, Price, Toms, Kauble, Leffler and Jerew; Clark Metal — McGraw, LaSeta, Wolfe, Picket, Norris, Clarke, Graff, Jaycox; G&G Homes — Gilbert, Wilcox, Maynard, Flesher, Robinson, Mulvaine, Crabtree and McFann; Alloy — Peacock, Warner, Richards, L Merchant, Wilson, Cudd and Britz.

The VFW-Clark Metal nine will be managed by Carl West and Don McGraw. G&G and Alloy players will be piloted by Ray Frye and Robert Shoemaker.

HEADS FOR NEW TEAM. Billy Hunter packs in the Kansas City dressing room at Yankee Stadium Thursday after his trade to the Cleveland Indians. The trade was announced after the first game which Hunter helped the A's win with two hits and two runs batted in. The Kansas City club will get Chico Carrasquel from Cleveland. (UPI Telephoto)

Boston Takes Second Place In AL's Chase

This is a story about a loser, game little Murry Dickson of the Kansas City Athletics.

Almost 42, the knuckleballing righthander went all the way only to lose in 12 innings Thursday night, 3-2 to the American League leading New York Yankees. Most of them weren't old enough to be Boy Scouts when Murry pitched his first major league game.

Youngsters Lead Attack

The kids who beat the old man, a rookie in the AL, were Andy Carey and Elston Howard. Carey, who singled and went to third when his theft of second drew a wild throw, was 8 years old when Dickson broke in with the St. Louis Cardinals in 1939. Howard, who singled Carey home, was 9.

Starter Whitey Ford and winning reliever Ryne Duren were 10 when Murry stepped into the majors from Houston. Bill Skowron, whose sixth home run tied it 2-all in the fifth, was 8 when the 5-10½ Missourian made his debut. Tony Kubek, who got the first of 12 Yankee hits, was 3.

The A's who won the opener of the day-night pair 4-1, fell to third with the defeat as Boston, a 4-2 winner over Detroit, took second place, nine games behind New York. Fourth place Washington defeated the Chicago White Sox 6-5; and Baltimore jumped past Cleveland into fifth by beating the Indians 7-5.

Cerv Hits 16h

Ray Herbert (2-1) won the opener with an eight-hitter, blanking the Yanks until Carey's sixth homer in the eighth inning. Bob Cerv hit his 16th homer for the A's, winning their first at Yanke Stadium in 18 tries since July 22, 1956. Tom Sturdivant (1-4) was the loser, giving up a two-run, second - inning triple to Billy Hunter — who was traded to Cleveland for Chico Carrasquel after the game.

Dave Sisler, 4-0 lifetime vs Detroit, won his sixth with relief help after singling home the clincher in the fourth against Paul Foytack (5-6). Jackie Jensen hit his 15th homer for the Sox.

Neil Chrisley's third hit, a triple, and second RBI bagged it for Washington in the eighth against losing reliever Early Wynn (5-5). Al Smith counted three runs with two homers for the last place White Sox. Dick Hyde won it in relief.

Erie, Shovel and OSCO Nines Grab Industrial League Wins

Erie topped Marion Engineer Depot 5-3, OSCO rolled over McMillen 12-7 and Marion Power Shovel clipped Huber-Warco 5-4 in Industrial League No. 1 action Thursday night at Garfield Park.

The MED nine scored one in the opening inning on a double by Tuttle, an infield out and a sacrifice fly. The losers added two in the second when DeGood reached first base on an error and then rode home on a home run blast by Darnell. Erie pushed over a single run in the fourth on hits by Don Williams and Bus Gruber. Another run came home in the fifth on hits by McCrery and Jim Kunkle.

Erie nailed the verdict with a three-run uprising in the seventh. Burke, McCrery and Williams rapped out hits and a fielder's choice accounted for the winners final tally. McCrery and Williams each had two hits for the winners with Kunkle getting credit for the victory.

McMillen pushed over all seven of its runs in the second inning. The scoring came on a single by Dillinger, a walk, a fielder's choice, another error, a hit batsman, a third error and a home run by Baggs.

OSCO had scored four in the first on four hits, an error and a hit batter and added one in the second on three hits, a walk and a fielder's choice. The winners tied the score in the third, scoring two runs on three base hits. A five-run burst in the fifth clinched the wins. Four hits, an error, a hit batter and a fielder's choice accounted for the rally. Lemke led the winning attack with four hits. French banged out three safeties while Klingel had two.

Marion Power Shovel pushed over its winning run in the seventh inning without benefit of a base hit. A walk, an error and a wild pitch gave MPS its win.

Edington opened Huber's first inning with a single and moved to second on an error. He was driven home on a single by Don Johnson. A single run was added in the second after McCrery laced out a double and hits by Wilson, Edington and Sherm McKinniss added a run in third. Huber's final tally came in the fifth when Johnson belted a home run.

MPS opened its attack with two in the second. Boles hit a double and a walk and an error accounted for the scores. Doubles by Jack and Bob Higgins along with a pair of walks gave the Shovel two runs in the fifth.

Rainfall Ruins Fishing Plans For Weekend

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Water water everywhere—but not a place to fish!

That's the drab and dreary weekend outlook for Ohio's rod and reel enthusiasts, according to the State Department of Natural Resources. Only a few lakes and ponds hold out any hope for weekend success, heavy rains having made most of the streams high and muddy.

Here it is by sections:

NORTHWEST: All lakes and streams muddy and high, weekend outlook poor. East Harbor is fair, as is Lake St. Marys where some crappies, bass and catfish are being taken.

NORTHEAST: Streams? No! Some fish being taken from lakes in Columbiana, Huron, Mahoning, Stark and Summit counties.

EAST CENTRAL AND SOUTHEAST: Few waters in fishable condition, but best promise at Burr Oak Reservoir in Morgan County, Veto in Washington, Atwood in Tuscarawas, and Forked Run in Meigs.

CENTRAL AND SOUTH: Streams muddy and high, but fishing may be fair at Jackson and Buckeye lakes.

SOUTHWEST: Only Grant, Kiser, Cowan and Sinclair lakes are in fair condition—all other lakes and streams being high and muddy.

SANDUSKY BAY AND BASS ISLAND AREA: Fishing fair in Sandusky Bay, especially for catfish, perch and sheepshead—mostly around Bay Bridge. Fishing in island area is poor, but some catfish, perch and white bass being caught around Catawba, Starve, Ballast and Rattlesnake islands. White bass being found in deep waters around the islands.

As Sen. Kennedy Sees It

(Mr. Crosby is in Europe. He will resume writing his column June 20.)

WASHINGTON — I speak tonight as a fugitive from an isolation booth known as the United States Senate. There the contestants cannot see or hear the public audience. We receive questions of increasing difficulty. We must answer whether ready or not.

When we finally lose, there is no consolation convertible — only a law office "back in Pocatello." Yet, for some strange reason, many are clamoring to go on this show—but no current contestant ever wants to take his winnings and go home.

The more serious links between broadcasting and politics are very real.

The public service broadcaster and the public servant are both largely dependent on the same factor, public approval, not necessarily instant or unanimous but enough in the long run to keep us on our course.

The broadcaster who offers programs neither seen nor heard is not offering a public service, no matter how high the quality.

The politician whose indifference to public opinion costs him his seat will no longer serve his nation, no matter how principled his courage.

THE QUESTION facing us both is: Will that desire for public approbation become dominant?

Will Gresham's law operate in the broadcasting and political worlds wherein the bad inevitably drive out the good?

Will the politician's desire for reelection and the broadcaster's desire for ratings cause both to seek the lowest common denominator of appeal—to put public opinion at all times ahead of the public interest?

I know the broadcasters' familiar response to criticism: "We only give the public what it wants."

We politicians use that answer, too. But I am suggesting a greater faith in the American people, in their ability to respect independent judgment and courage and quality, even when they disagree with the results.

Moreover, if both groups are to fulfill in full our responsibilities to the public, then we must on occasion lead, inform, correct and help to shape popular opinion.

I KNOW, TOO, your other response—that broadcasting is a business — that busines need sponsors—and sponsors are interested only in the quantity of people reached.

We politicians need sponsors, too --I am looking for more than a million sponsors in Massachusetts this November. If I do not secure them, the Senate has no provisions for "sustaining time" to keep me on the air.

I am equally convinced that sponsors are willing and available to back public service radio and television programs of quality, even though they may be more literate, more controversial or less exciting than quiz shows and pop music.

I am not asking you to increase the amount of sustaining time you now give to public service programs.

I am suggesting that sponsors can be found for good, worthwhile, significant public service shows and that the American people are prepared for programs more complex, more penetrating, more literate and more constructive than those to which their taste has become accustomed in the past.

I WOULD, in short, ask our public service broadcasters to cast off three fears.

1. Do not be afraid of stimulating the viewer. You may become involved in heated or delicate controversies. You may use the rights of editorializing which the FCC has given you. You may antagonize some viewers and some sponsors, and even some Senators. But if the program is honest and constructive and thoughtful—then I am convinced that you will gain increased public respect.

2. Do not be afraid of being constructive as well as sensational or dramatic. No one denies the public's appetite for scandal and excitement. But your responsibility of public service goes beyond this.

3. Do not be afraid to be literate —to assume a high level of intelligence and interest on the part of your audience — and to direct at least a substantial part of your programs to the highest instead of the lowest IQ range among your listeners.

Perhaps you will not obtain the same high ratings as a variety show or 1938 movie.

Perhaps you will receive some complaints that the show is over people's heads—but, if Adlai Stevenson's experience in any precedent, the complainants will always be talking about other people's heads, not their own.

For the eggheads are on their way back. People are willing to think, to think hard and to respect hard thinkers. I trust your industry is equal to the challenge.

Davis Seeking 440 Crown at NCAA's Meet

BERKELEY, Calif. (AP)—The 37th annual NCAA track and field championships open today at the University of California with four meet record holders in the bulky field of 356.

This big group lists five Olympic champions and seven of last year's individual winners. Naturally some of the names fall into more than one of these categories.

Broad jumper Greg Bell of Indiana won the Olympic championship in 1956 with a leap of 25-8¼. Last year at Austin, Tex., he won with an NCAA record jump of 26-7 and seeks Jesse Owens' 23-year-old world record of 26-8¼.

The other NCAA record setters of last year are Iowa's Charley Jones with 8:57.6 in the two-mile, Pacific Lutheran's John Fromm with a 248 - foot 1 - inch javelin throw and California's Don Bowden, who took the 880 in 1:47.2.

Bowden concentrates this time on the mile where he'll duel the Olympics' 1,500 - meter champion Ron Delany of the defending champion Villanova Wildcats.

In addition to Bell and Delany, the Olympic champs competing are discus thrower Al Oerter of Kansas, Southern California's high jumper Charlie Dumas and Ohio State's Glenn Davis who captured the 400-meter hurdles. Here Davis runs the 440-yard dash for which he has equalled the world record of 45.8.

North Carolina and Virginia are plagued by a green striped worm which eats the needles off the pine trees. The insect doesn't harm the trees, but leaves them quite bare.

Racing Career Ends

Tim Tam To Be Retired After Operation on Leg

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Tim Tam comes to this center of veterinary medicine next week for an operation known to baseball players as removal of bone chips.

Ball players usually return to the lineup after such an operation. Tim Tam, horse racing's biggest money winner this year, conceivably could race again. But he won't.

Calumet Farm trainer Jimmy Jones said so Thursday in announcing the operation to be performed at the University of Pennsylvania's School of Veterinary Medicine.

"He's ruined, and about all we can do is save him for stud," said Jones in New York after conferring with Dr. William Reed, his veterinarian, and Mrs. Gene Markey, owner of Calumet Farm.

The three-year-old colt won the Kentucky Derby and the Preakness, then injured his right front ankle running the Belmont Stakes last Saturday. He finished second.

What Tim Tam did was break the sesamoid bone which forms the knob at the back of the fetlock joint just above the foot. The result is bone chips lodged between the joint.

Usually in this type of operation the horse is up and exercising the day after surgery and home in two weeks.

Victories Grabbed By Moose, Eagles

In a brace of PonyGrad games played Thursday night, the Eagles downed the Elks, 7-1, while the Moose took a 9-2 decision from the Moulders.

Eagle stickmen punched out seven runs on seven hits to support a neat pitching job by their Dulin, who hurled a one-hitter.

The victors scored six runs in the fourth and added a seventh tally in the sixth. Elkmen, taking a 1-0 lead in the opener, were set down in order thereafter by Dulin.

Bailey took the hill to start for the Elks, gave up four runs and seven hits and walked a quartet before giving way to Larkin.

Moose had an easy time of it with the Moulders, scoring three runs in both the first and second frames for a 6-0 lead that was good until the Moulders came across with their pair of runs in the fifth. The victors added a brace of insurance tallies in the sixth.

Ansley hured for the Moose and was credited with the win. Traugh and Justice paraded to the hill for the Moulder cause, neither one of whom was able to effectively stem the Moulder tide.

The Virgin Islands (40 miles east of Puerto Rico were purchased by the U.S. from Denmark in 1917 for 25 million dollars.

New York Stock Market

NEW YORK (AP)—Some tobaccos and oils did well as the stock market pushed toward another new 1958 high in active trading early this afternoon.

Gains of most key stocks were fractional, but some pushed ahead a point or more.

Turnover was close to Thursday's brisk rate.

Rails joined industrials in the advance while utilities changed little.

The tobacco stocks were responding in varied manner to Street gossip concerning another article about cigarettes which is expected to be published next week in a national magazine.

Lorillard gained a good fraction, U. S. Tobacco leaped around two points and American Tobacco rose about one.

Texas Co. rose about a point. Kern County Land, Royal Dutch, Sinclair and Standard oil (New Jersey) rose fracationally. Kennecott rose a fraction.

The rails moved ahead slightly as Congress seemed on the road to aiding the industry.

Airlines showed some activity. Motors nudged forward slightly. Steels were a bit higher.

Caterpillar rose about a point. A similar gain was made by International Telephone.

U. S. government bonds declined.

1-B—IN MEMORIAMS

IN MEMORY of Johnnie Brammer who passed away three years ago today, June 13, 1955.
Gone is the face we loved so dear,
Silent is the voice we loved to hear.
Too far away for sight or speech.
So sweet to remember him who once was here.
And though absent is just as dear.
Father, Mother
Brothers and Sisters.

IN LOVING MEMORY of James E. Plummer who passed away June 13, 1956.
Gone but will not be forgotten in years to come, by his wife, Anna Mable Plummer.

IN LOVING MEMORY of our husband and father, Lloyd W. Gillette, who passed away one year ago, June 13, 1957.
To those who have a dad
Remember him each day.
For you never know the loss,
Until he's gone away.
To a home not made by hands
Beyond its golden door
Awaits the one who's now away,
Not lost—just gone before.
So in that home not made by hands
The Master will prepare
A place for us and when He calls
We'll meet that loved one there.
Sadly missed by wife, children and grandchildren
Wife, Margaret
Son, George Gillette
Daughters, Betty Postell

Sought End to Agreements

Several Ohio Industries Hit by Trade Pact Vote

WASHINGTON (AP)—The outlook is bad for Ohio industries demanding an end to trade agreements that let foreign manufacturers undersell them.

These industries, employing thousands of workers, include pottery, certain glassware, leather goods, lumber, bicycles, ceramics and other firms.

Spokesmen for these types of business have fought a long time against the reciprocal trade agreements. So have their Ohio congressmen, in many cases.

The amazingly lopsided House vote this week to extend President Eisenhower's trade program five years was black news for these people.

Jubilant backers of the program cannot, of course, deny that some Ohio workers can be and are hurt by reciprocal trade.

How can they—when they are shown a piece of Japanese glassware that sells for one third the price of a comparable American product?

But they insist that the vast majority of Ohio workers—nearly a million, in fact—hold their jobs in large measure because their products are sold abroad.

In short, where a comparatively small industry like pottery is damaged by reciprocal trade, they say a huge industry like steel benefits.

To some extent, this difference in viewpoint is reflected in the way Ohioans in the House divided, 11-11, on the decisive vote on whether to pigeonhole the program.

For instance, Rep. William Ayres (R) of Akron, with many large industries depending on foreign trade, voted against killing the measure. Rep. Wayne L. Hays (D) of Flushing, spokesman for a district with many of the complaining industries, voted to kill it.

Rep. Frank Bow (R) of Canton, who opposed reciprocal trade, says he had a large volume of mail from the free traders—much of it, he says, inspired by the League of Women Voters and the Committee for a National Trade Policy, headed by Charles Taft of Ohio.
